Trust deficit shows in India-China LAC talks

Neighbour wants focus on Pangong south bank alone; Delhi is pushing for negotiations on entire Ladakh

MAYANK SINGH @New Delhi

MILITARY-LEVEL talks on resolving the stand-off along the Line of Actual Control in Ladakh will not be guided by the Chinese agenda, as they cannot be fully trusted, a senior officer said on Thursday.

While the Chinese side wants to discuss only the situation on the south bank of the Pangong Tso lake for now, India is emphatic that the bilateral talks need to include every stand-off location so as to arrive at a comprehensive solution.

"China wants that the talks be only on south bank of the Pangong Tso. We want that the talks should be on the entire eastern Ladakh and begin from Depsang. The south bank ought to be the last point of discussion," the officer said.

"The Depsang problem, where Chinese have blocked four patrolling points, is much older than the problem they initiated in May last in the Pangong area. Now that we are talking, we need to include every place," the officer added.

The Chinese are harping on the south bank because the Indian Army has occupied all the important heights there, including Mukhpari, Rezang La and Reqin La, the officer said and added that the talks need to include de-escalation of air activity too.

"However, the situation doesn't seem like it will be resolved soon and we cannot trust them. China also has done all the preparations to stay at the LAC through the entire winter season. We cannot trust China blindly," the officer said.

Ground communication to be strengthened

India and China have decided to strengthen ground communication and stop sending more troops along the LAC to avoid misunderstandings and misjudgments, the MEA said

Referring to the recent joint statement issued by both sides after the Corps Commander-level meeting, he said: "Issuing a joint statement is good. We want solutions but China should manifest whatever it says on the ground. Till the time Chinese troops don't go back, we will not slacken our positions. Our soldiers are alert and fully prepared," the officer emphasised.

Most of the Indian soldiers on the LAC have been armed with the modern Seg Sauer assault rifles. The soldiers used to have INSAS rifles till now.

Clarifying why representatives from the foreign office attended the recent Corps Commanders meeting, the officer said it was to send a clear message that there is no difference in India's stance at the military and diplomatic levels. P9

14 train pairs suspended

With the three-day Rail Roko protest in Punjab by farmer outfits starting on Thursday, 14 pairs of trains have been suspended. A state bandh call for Friday has already been given

Show of strength today to mark bandh

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

TAKING their fight to the streets after the showdown in Parliament, Opposition parties will on Friday support a call for Bharat Bandh given by over two-dozen affiliated farmer organisations over the recent passage of three farm sector reform bills by voice vote.

While Punjab has already seen disruptions in train services due to massive protests, a clutch of organisations like the All India Farmers Union, Bharatiya Kisan Union, All India Kisan Mahasangh, and All India Kisan Sangharsh Coordination Committee have announced a nationwide bandh on Friday. Farmers' outfits in Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra, too, are on the same page. Also, 10 Central trade unions will support Bharat Bandh.

The Congress on Thursday launched a nearly two-month-long mass movement against the government for passing the farm bills. It intends to collect two crore signatures from protesting farmers against the proposed laws that are awaiting Presidential assent. "The nationwide agitation will continue till the government repeals the black laws," A K Antony had said after a meeting of the party general secretaries on Monday. Apart from joining the Bharat Bandh, the Congress has lined up a series of pro-farmer programmes, said K C Venugopal, party general secretary.

In Bihar, RJD, Congress and Left parties will together take to the streets and stage protests. In West Bengal, Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee said they will protest against the farm bills until they are withdrawn.

Apart from Congress, Trinamool, AAP, TRS, BJD and Left parties have demanded that the bills be sent to a select committee for vetting. P9

Centre allows states to spend 50 pc of SDRF in Covid fight

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE Centre has allowed states to spend up to 50 per cent of funds from the State Disaster Response Fund (SDRF) to ramp up health infrastructure such as quarantine facilities, testing laboratories, oxygen generation plants, purchase of ventilators and PPE kits to fight the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) wrote to the states on Thursday, a day after Prime Minister Narendra Modi told chief ministers of the seven worst-affected states that his government has increased the states' limit to spend the SDRF to boost infrastructure in the fight against the pandemic.

In a letter to chief secretaries of all states and Union Territories, the Union Home Ministry said that it has partially modified the list of items and norms of assistance for containment measures of Covid-19, eligible from SDRF by way of special one-time dispensation with the overall capping of 50 per cent for the financial year 2020-21.

The areas where the states can spend up to 50 per cent of the SDRF include quarantine, sample collection and screening facilities.

Provision for temporary accommodation, food, clothing, medical care, etc., for people affected and sheltered in quarantine camps (other than home quarantine) or for cluster containment operations will be covered under the modified norms.

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

FORMER Prime Minister and Rajya Sabha member H D Deve Gowda now has a swanky new ride. The high-end Volvo car, given to him last week, is the most expensive vehicle given to any elected representative in the state by the State Government. It costs almost three times more than what is permitted for a Rajya Sabha member.

The decision to purchase such an expensive car at a time when the state is facing severe financial crisis has raised many eyebrows.

16 ACRES OF FOREST LAND RECLAIMED

Recovered land in Gullahalli is worth Rs 30 crore; 100 acres are encroached

MEERA BHARADWAJ
@Bengaluru

FOR the last four years, encroachments in Gullahalli Reserve Forest have not been cleared due to influential encroachers. This, despite court notices served on them.

However, last week, Hoskote Range officials after much effort have evicted the encroachers and cleared 16 acres of land worth Rs 30 crore.

Out of the 1,596 acres, nearly 100 acres are encroached upon here. The land value is as high as Rs 1.5 crore per acre with its close proximity to Bengaluru. Action for eviction has been initiated by the Karnataka Forest Department in various courts as forest encroachments around Bengaluru Rural and Urban run into thousands of acres.

This reserve forest in Bengaluru Rural is a pristine scrub forest and is home to blackbucks, spotted deer and other wildlife. Presently, cases for recovery of other encroached lands in this reserve forest are in different stages in civil courts.

Last week's eviction drive was done under the guidance of Anthony Mariyappa, DCF, Bengaluru (Rural), and ACF Subbarao. The encroached lands fell in Survey no. 1 of Gullahalli village and Survey no. 45 of Doddaragere village in Block-1 of the reserve forest.

Speaking to TNIE, Range Forest Officer Varun Kumar said, "People who had encroached upon had, in fact, built a few houses, sheds and a godown. They had also given out these buildings on rent. Despite an eviction notice served in 2016 by a Doddaballapur court and notices served many times, the eviction had not been done. However, in the eviction process that went on for two days on September 16 and 17, all eight structures were demolished and the encroached areas recovered."

Another case for recovery of 60 acres in Gullahalli Reserve Forest has been filed in the Karnataka Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Special Court. Earlier, a few patches of 2 to 2.5 acres were recovered, the Hoskote RFO said. "The moment court orders for eviction are received, the rest of the encroachments will be cleared in the reserve forest. Presently, plantation work has been taken up and native species like mango, jamun, sampige, ficus, hippe(butter tree), etc is being planted to restore the forest area."

IISc, Wipro GE Healthcare open research lab

Express News Service @ Bengaluru

THE Indian Institute of Science (IISc) and Wipro GE Healthcare on Thursday announced the inauguration of an advanced centre for innovation and research — WIPRO GE Healthcare - Computational and Data Sciences Collaborative Laboratory of Artificial Intelligence in Medical and Healthcare Imaging — at the IISc campus here on Thursday.

The facility, located at the Department of Computational and Data Sciences (CDS), will work on next-level healthcare diagnostics with deep learning technology, artificial intelligence and future-ready digital interfaces, to provide highly sophisticated diagnostic and medical image-reconstruction techniques and protocols for faster and better imaging. The facility will work with over 50 students and three faculty members of IISc.

Some of the use cases that the collaboration will explore are lightweight deep learning models for classification and segmentation of Covid-19 lesions in lung ultrasound and CT images, deep learning models for improving as well as classifying spectral domain optical coherence tomography images in ophthalmology, deep learning-based medical image reconstruction methods and, exploiting the structure of 3D volume data that necessitates fewer annotations.

The infrastructural requirements, including finished interiors, power backup, internet connectivity, and air conditioning, among others will be met by IISc. Wipro GE Healthcare is supporting the centre with a one-time grant, as part of its CSR efforts.

Export ban on onion leaves traders in tears

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

THE ban on export of onions, imposed last week, has left leading exporters of the bulb from the city reeling. They have already lost lakhs by selling it in the domestic market at half the price and are desperate for an immediate solution.

The Directorate General of Foreign Trade banned onion export on September 14 following a shortage in the local market which led to price rise after rains played havoc in production areas in Karnataka and Maharashtra.

The biggest exporter of onions from Bengaluru, S Anandan of K Venkatesh & Co, says he is under enormous mental and financial stress. A big name across the country, he buys onions daily from farmers of Challakere in Chitradurga and many of its surrounding areas including Hiriyur, Aimangala, Belaghatta, Koverahatti.

"I have lost over Rs 40 lakh just this week. My shipments got stuck at different ports when the ban was suddenly announced — 1,74,000 kg at Chennai port, 2 lakh kg at Kolkata port, 1,50,000 kg at Tuticorin and 98,000 kg at Chennai port. They were intended for Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Bahrain, Malaysia, Vietnam and Hong Kong," he said.

Insisting that onions stored in closed containers will perish in a week, Anandan said that he offloaded the stock at Chennai and Tuticorin at half the price locally.

Ajit Shah, president of the Horticultural Produce Exporters Association (aka Onion Exporters Assn), Mumbai, said, "The Indian onion market exports 17 lakh to 18 lakh tonnes annually. A high-level meeting was held on Monday in this connection and those in the know of things tell me that a positive outcome is expected shortly," he said.

Citizens rush to take part in mobility ideas challenge, deadline extended

PREEJA PRASAD @Bengaluru

THAT Bengalureans want their city to be a sustainable, mobility-friendly one is evident from this happy development. A competition to bring in better ideas to make the city more conducive for walking, cycling and use of public transport, has seen a higher number of participants than expected.

The challenge, called Sustainable Mobility Accords (SuMA), is an initiative by the Directorate of Urban Land Transport (DULT). Its popularity has forced an extension of deadline from September 30 to October 7, to enable eager Resident Welfare Associations and citizen groups to fill applications. Requests have been pouring in from registered RWAs and groups who want to participate in this challenge.

With an aim to reboot cycling in the city, DULT introduced the challenge to create sustainable neighbourhoods to come up with ideas and proposals to enable 80 per cent of local trips by walk or on cycles, and 60 per cent of trips outside their respective areas by walk, on cycles, and public or shared modes of transport, instead of private vehicles.

DULT will offer up to Rs 50 lakh each to the 10 best ideas or proposals from RWAs/citizen groups. These 10 will then present their ideas to the SuMA Task Force, whose chairman is the DULT commissioner, to take up pilot interventions in their respective areas.

Registered RWA or citizen groups working with communities can participate in the competition. "We have over 40 Cycle Day community partners and expect around 20 applications," said a DULT officer.

Currently, Changemakers of Kanakapura and the area RWA are looking to participate in the challenge, and have come up with the idea of introducing cycle and pedestrian lanes around Turahalli forest. "We are either looking at separate lanes or closing one side of the road in the mornings to make it environmentally friendly. We may add plants or flower pots on the 11.2 km road," said Abdul ww, group convener.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

25th September: Virgoan patterns say one thing: be practical. I know we all have our own personalities, pressures and priorities, but the general rule today is that it's good to go for concrete results. The more we have achieved by the end of the day, the happier we'll all be.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Venus, the planet which rules your emotions, is now making the transition from a favourable region of your chart to one which is much more challenging. It will therefore pay you to keep your social diary open for last-minute changes - and to wait for whatever fate turns up.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You may tie up financial loose ends today, and decide on particular purchases or investments one way or the other. As far as the need for emotional commitment is concerned, there may be creative paths around a current dilemma. All you have to do is find them! Give it time.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The Moon continues playing a powerfully supportive role, so you can still afford to take a confident line. It's as if the cards are stacked in your favour, and even if someone else plays a trump card, you can still come out on top. You're really in quite a strong position.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
If you should imagine that you are running out of time, you are very, very wrong. Time is precisely what you have, so don't rush to complete tasks and achieve ambitions at the risk of forgetting vital details. What you really need to do now is encourage others to play their full part.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Most people think that there is something wrong with being immature, but they're wrong. There are times, such as now, when the best way to relax and rediscover your vitality, is to return to pastimes you gave up long ago. Life favours the young-at-heart.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
A new emotional cycle begins today, one which is more relaxed and hopefully enjoyable than of late. All artistic and creative types will also be favoured, and you should develop long-neglected skills and talents. What you need to do next is let someone important into your confidence.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You will now be showing yourself in all your indecisive splendour. You are often criticised for failing to make up your mind, but surely you are now better placed than partners who take hasty decisions. They may even come to envy your position.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You may take a charitable view of the world, and see what you can do to assist people who are worse off than you. The plain fact is that you want to do your bit to help, and partners will be foolish not to recognise this. Plus, of course, you can make sure others know that you have the right to make your own decisions.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
If you are tired of making up your own mind, how about doing what other people want for a change? You can't be tough and independent all the time. Sometimes it's better to defy expectations and put your feet up and leave others to put the world to rights.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Venus, the planet which signifies your romantic hopes and dreams, alters its position ever so slightly, bringing in its train the possibility of more love and affection than you could wish for. That's wonderful. Dreams are one thing, though, reality another.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The most amusing social gatherings should involve a touch of nostalgia. So, if you can contact old friends and recreate the past, you could have a time to remember. You may even manage to forget tensions at work! Mind you, you might also be ready for a spot of escapism, sticking your head in the sand!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
There seems to be an awful lot going on which is difficult, if not impossible, to explain. But there's nothing new in this! At least your financial prospects are still promising much, especially in the long-term. What you can do now is tell someone you've always liked just how you feel about them!

No Covid beds: Cases against 4 pvt hospitals

Action taken for not reserving beds for coronavirus patients; Palike had issued notices to 36 establishments

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) on Thursday initiated criminal proceedings against four private hospitals under the Disaster Management Act for not following government orders on allocation of beds for Covid patients.

The BBMP, on September 16, had slapped a final show-cause notice on 36 private hospitals for not reserving 50 per cent of beds for Covid19 patients and not uploading the data on the government website. Of these, action has been taken against four private hospitals including Republic Hospital, Vikram Hospital, Nu and Fortis.

A letter, signed by BBMP Commissioner N Manjunatha Prasad, stated, "The reports before me reveal that 50 per cent of beds have not been made available to the government quota and details are not uploaded on the KPME portal. This a violation of the government orders. Since the reply from the hospital is unsatisfactory and violates the orders, criminal prosecution of the hospital in-charge has been initiated under Section 60 Disaster Management Act 2005".

The notices have issued to Nagasubramaniam A, the owner of Fortis Hospital, Bannerghatta Road, Asma Banu, owner of Nu Hospital, Padmanabhanagar, the owner and in-charge of Vikram Hospital on Miller's Road, and D R Shashidhar, owner of Republic Hospital, Langford Gardens.

Prasad told TNIE, "This is for the first time that the BBMP had taken such stern action action against hospitals. Criminal cases have been filed against the owners. The hospitals will be shut down when the health department and government cancels the licence. Keeping in mind the interests of the patients, we have taken this decision and not cancelled the licence of the hospitals."

Contract, outsourced health workers strike, ask for pay parity

About 30,000 contract and outsourced health workers are on strike | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

DS Jagadeesh (63) was given a 'Corona Warrior' award on Independence Day, for his service as an ambulance driver during the pandemic. He ferried patients from Channagiri taluk hospital to Davanagere district hospital, from surrounding villages to the taluk hospital, and patients to Covid Care Centres in Kerebilchi and Kakanur.

An outsourced health worker, hired by the health and family welfare department through an agency, his salary remains Rs 11,600 per month, with no pension, job security, transfer option, incentives or leave. His counterparts, who are permanent workers and drive ambulances for the government, earn around Rs 36,000 per month, with regular increments.

Close on the heels of the ASHA workers' strike, the state government is facing more opposition, this time from nearly 30,000 contract and outsourced health workers who stayed off duty on Thursday. The workers fall under health and family welfare and medical education departments, and their major demands include regularisation, hike in pay on par with permanent employees and job security.

A committee formed on June 3 to look into their demands was to submit a report in three months, which has not happened. Vishwaradhya HY, president, Karnataka State Health and Medical Education Department Contractual and Outsourced Employees' Association, said, "Department officials threatened to fire us if we don't return to work, but we will not budge. Several workers have not received salaries for 2-3 months. We don't get Covid risk incentive or compensation if we die while on duty, or have health or life insurance."

The association comprises Ayush doctors, ambulance drivers, staff nurses, data entry operators, lab technicians, counsellors, supervisors, ANMs and health programme supervisors.

A regular Ayush doctor earns ₹56,000 while a contract or outsourced Ayush doctor gets between ₹17,000 and ₹25,000. A staff nurse earns ₹34,000, while a contract nurse gets ₹12,000 to ₹13,000. An ANM earns ₹30,000, while a contract ANM earns ₹8,000 to ₹10,000. "If they had called us for discussions or fulfilled some promises, we would not go on strike," Vishwaradhya said.

Mysuru comes up with plan to contain spread

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

MYSURU district, which registered the highest mortality rate after Bengaluru, has come up with an action plan to contain the spread of coronavirus in the coming weeks. This step comes in the wake of PM Narendra Modi expressing anguish over the increase in mortality cases in seven districts of Karnataka.

The district administration has extended testing time and will conduct a survey to track patients with blood pressure, diabetes and other health issues. It has appealed to the people to voluntarily turn up for tests.

Deputy Commissioner C Sharath said they held a series of meetings with the private hospital managements and have managed to arrange for 524 general beds, 357 oxygenated beds, 57 high death dependency units and 87 ICU beds. These hospitals have been requested to provide 100 beds equipped with oxygen cylinders at a trauma care centre in Mysuru, he added. The private hospitals have been directed to immediately upload the details of the patients who have been tested in private labs, he said.

We want people to share details for contact tracing instead of hiding it for various reasons like fearing home isolation

CONG ISSUES NO-TRUST NOTICE, BJP SAYS READY

Oppostion strategy is to force BSY-led government to discuss uncomfortable issues, and House to record it

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru:

THE Opposition Congress on Thursday issued notice to move a no-confidence motion against the year-old BS Yediyurappa government, saying that people have lost trust in the government. With just two days left for the monsoon session to end, Opposition Leader Siddaramaiah sought to move the motion in the assembly.

The ruling BJP, with its strength of 118, has a comfortable majority in the 220-member assembly and the no-confidence motion will not pose a threat to the government's stability.

Siddaramaiah claimed that the notice has the support of 23 legislators – 10 per cent of the total strength of the House, as per rules. He even made his MLAs stand, and Speaker Vishveshwara Hegde Kageri said he could make out that there were more than 23 MLAs. Later, Kageri accepted the notice under Section 167 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Legislative Assembly, and said he will give time to discuss it before the session concludes on Saturday.

Issuing the notice, Siddaramaiah said, "People have lost trust in the government. There is no confidence in ministers too. They do not have any right to continue. The Chief Minister and his ministers should resign."

However, the Speaker proceeded to announce the tabling of a few bills. Siddaramaiah objected, saying, "When the government has lost our confidence, it cannot continue with processes relating to legislations, as they have no moral right."

Congress MLA and Public Accounts Committee Chairman HK Patil said once the no-confidence motion notice is issued, the government cannot take any major decisions, including passing bills that will impact people across the state. The State government is trying to bring in a Financial (Supplementary Estimate) Bill.

Revenue Minister R Ashoka said there is no threat to the government and they are ready to prove their majority in the House at any time. "Just because you (Siddaramaiah) are saying it, our government will not fall. They (Opposition) do not have a mandate to form the government. In fact, their MLAs did not trust them and came to our party. We don't know how many more are coming this side," the minister said. Taking a jibe at Congress leaders, he said the JDS, that had formed the coalition government, is now accusing the Congress of backstabbing them.

Siddaramaiah responded, claiming the Congress is confident of defeating the government in the no-confidence motion as some BJP members are supporting the Congress, and will vote against the government.

Motion sure to be defeated, Cong wants CM to respond

ANUSHA RAVI @Bengaluru

DESPITE the reduced attendance in the Legislative Assembly owing to Covid-19, the BJP undoubtedly has more numbers, yet, the Congress on Thursday moved a 'No-Confidence' motion notice against the B S Yediyurappa government.

Fully aware that it will be defeated if put to vote, leader of opposition Siddaramaiah moved a 'No-Confidence' motion notice as part of Congress' strategy to raise issues that are sure to come as an embarrassment to the government. Sources from the Congress suggest that while their No Confidence motion notice is sure to fail, the point of moving it was to ensure the that chief minister is compelled to respond.

"If we had moved an Adjournment Motion, the Speaker could have rejected it but a No Confidence motion notice cannot be. More importantly, the CM himself will have to reply and nobody else can substitute for him. We want to CM to respond and the House records to show it," said a former minister from the Congress. The strategy was devised by a team of eight to 10 Congress members on Wednesday and received a go-ahead from newly-appointed state in-charge general secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala.

Confident that the government will not call for a sitting of the legislative assembly for another six months once all its key bills are passed, the Congress has chosen to move a no-confidence motion notice hoping it would allow unrestricted discussions on various matters, including allegations against the CM's kin.

"It doesn't matter if the Motion notice is defeated. Let there, at least, be a debate in the public sphere on issues," the Congress leader said.

'2.15L auto, cab drivers got aid so far'

ANUSHA RAVI @Bengaluru

ON May 6 this year, Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa had announced a one-time Covid-19 relief of ₹5,000 to ₹7.75 lakh auto and cab drivers in the state. Four months down the line, only 2.15 lakh drivers have received the benefit, the government told the Assembly, leading to an Opposition onslaught on the discrepancies, delays and intent on the government.

In the Appropriation bill, tabled and passed by the House on Thursday, the Karnataka Government has sought a supplementary budget of ₹4,008 crore, of which the net outflow is ₹3,473 crore. Of this, ₹97.51 crore was the expenditure towards compensation for auto and cab drivers, barbers and washermen, the government said.

"We have received a total of 2,45,844 applications and money has been disbursed to 2,15,155 applicants. Around 30,000 are pending," said Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy.

The discrepancies in the number of beneficiaries announced by the government and the actual number of people who have benefitted from the scheme became a topic of hot debate in the House. "On what basis did the government say 7.75 lakh drivers will benefit if only 2.15 lakh drivers have been given compensation?" asked Opposition leader Siddaramaiah.

Other Opposition leaders like JDS' Bandeppa Kashempur pointed out that the yardstick being applied to accept applications only benefitted owners and not drivers. They demanded that the government drop mandatory submission of badge numbers to issue compensation, a suggestion rejected by the government. Speaker Vishveshwara Hegde Kageri had to intervene and ask the government to hold talks with drivers' unions so that more people are benefitted.

LOKAYUKTA PROBE NOW TIME-BOUND

Bengaluru: The functioning of anti-corruption agency Lokayukta came under scrutiny by members of the Legislative Council on Thursday, even as the House passed an amendment to the Lokayukta Act to fix a time-frame for completing the probe in cases registered with the agency. An amendment to the Act was earlier passed by the Assembly. As per the amendment, preliminary probes have to be completed within 3 months, and final inquiries within 6 months. While the agency can seek additional time by giving reasons, the amendment is seen as an attempt to avoid delay in disposal of cases. JDS member Basavaraj Horatti said disposal of takes a long time, in many cases 8-10 years, and in some even 18 years. He sought to know what action can be taken if they did not complete the inquiry within the fixed time-frame. Law Minister JC Madhu Swamy said if the institution fails to do so, the aggrieved persons can approach court. ENS

Mask-ed fight sets Twitter alight

Congress MLA Priyank Kharge's statement black mask inside the assembly set off a twitter feud between him and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Thursday. Kharge wore a black mask with 'Sonkita Sarkara' (infected government) printed on it as a mark of protest against the Yediyurappa government, and specifically rejecting its response to Congress' allegations of misappropriation of Covid funds. Not one to keep quiet, Sudhakar lashed out at Kharge, terming his intent "infected" for accusing the government and all Covid warriors, at a time when they are working 24/7 to contain the virus.

Oppn demands probe into BDA fund transfer

Opposition Leader in the Council SR Patil on Thursday urged the government to order a probe into alleged irregularities in the Rs 660-crore housing project taken up by the BDA. Seeking to move an adjournment motion, Patil said a senior officer working in the BDA had collected money from the contractor, but the government had not taken action against the officer or contractor. He listed the names of companies through which money was allegedly transferred, and sought a detailed probe. BJP and Congress members were engaged in a heated argument after ruling party members insisted that it cannot be taken up under an adjournment motion, and the Opposition cannot take names of private individuals who were not in the House to defend themselves. The Council chairman said he would fix time for discussion of the subject, but not as an adjournment motion.

'Rules modified for Deve Gowda's new vehicle'

AS per rules, for purchasing new vehicles for elected representatives, the Department of Personnel and Administrative Services cannot exceed ₹22 lakh for Cabinet ministers, Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha members, while chairpersons of boards and corporation cannot buy a car worth more than ₹11 lakh. However, there is no such limit for a CM's official vehicle.

Sources said that in allotting the car to the former PM, rules have been modified. The Volvo XC60 costs ₹76 lakh, including road tax and insurance, but as government cars are exempted from taxes, it cost ₹60 lakh. Yet, it is ₹38 lakh over and above the permitted limit.

Official sources said the former PM had requested for a "comfortable" vehicle. The proposal was cleared by CM B S Yediyurappa himself as a special case, and sent to Finance Department for approval. Taking into account his age and him being the only one from Karnataka to have been PM, an exemption was made, the sources said.

At present, most of the ministers and MPs are using Toyota Innova Crysta MUVs, while Yediyurappa and Opposition leader Siddaramiah are using Toyota Fortuner SUVs which cost ₹40-₹45 lakh. While the CM has two Fortuners, Siddaramiah was given one from the State Legislative Assembly.

In the normal course, ministers or other eligible lawmakers who need a vehicle approach the DPAR, which sends the request to the CM which is then sent to the Finance Department for approval. Deve Gowda's new car is registered in the name of the Chief Secretary. "No other car in the state, allotted by government, including the CM's vehicle, is this expensive," said the source.

PUBLIC THRONG ANGADI'S RESIDENCE TO PAY TRIBUTE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Belagavi

WHILE only a few members of the family of Union Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi attended his funeral in New Delhi on Thursday evening, a large number of people thronged his residence here to pay their tribute to the departed leader.

Angadi's mother Somavva was inconsolable recalling her son's struggles and how he came up in life, even as former Rajya Sabha MP Prabhakar Kore tried to console her.

Kore described Angadi as a tall and affable leader from the state. He was always eager to help those who came to him, Kore said, adding that his death had been a great loss to the state.

Of the nine railway ministers from the state so far, Angadi was the one who had been able to get several major projects to the state, claimed Kore.

"Angadi was admitted to a hospital in New Delhi on September 11. When I last spoke to him, he said that he would be in hospital for three days. He unfortunately suffered a heart attack on Wednesday," Kore added.

The last rites were performed at Lingayat Veerashaiva Rudra Bhoomi at Sector 24, Dwarka, New Delhi. According to family sources, Swamiji Balayya Hiremath from Belagavi had flown to New Delhi to perform the rites.

Angadi's wife Mangala, daughters Spoorti and Shraddha, granddaughter Ridhisha and others were present at the funeral. Deputy Chief Minister Laxman Savadi, MPs Annasaheb Jolle and Iranna Kadadi, ministers Jagadish Shettar and Ramesh Jarkiholi also attended the funeral.

HE WOULD MEET ME BEFORE LEAVING FOR DELHI: MOTHER

Belagavi: Union Minister Suresh Angadi's mother Somawwa was inconsolable after hearing the news of her son's demise on Thursday. She repeatedly said that her son is still alive and will return soon. A teary-eyed Somawwa said he used to meet her every time before he left to attend sessions in New Delhi. "He built a house and a temple of Basavanna in a village. We imparted education to him in very difficult times and would buy new clothes for him. He built a school in my name too," she said. —Sunil Patil

Visitors, selfie-seekers up risk for us, say worried netas

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MEMBERS cutting across party lines expressed apprehensions in the assembly on Thursday over the increase in Covid-19 cases and deaths.

Elected representatives are facing a threat from Covid-19, Opposition leader Siddaramaiah, BJP MLA Basangouda Yatnal and other members said, while condoling the death of Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi on Wednesday. It has become very risky for those in public life as people come to meet them without wearing masks, they said.

Siddaramaiah said Angadi's death was unexpected. "He was admitted to AIIMS, which has the best treatment facility. Recently, RS member Ashok Gasti passed away due to Covid-19... Congress MLA Narayana Rao from Basavakalyan constituency is fighting for his life," he said in the morning. By afternoon, Rao passed away.

"Many people who want to take a selfie remove masks. This is scary. We elected representatives who are in public life have to take safety measures," Siddaramaiah said.

Yatnal said with so many cases, it looked like another lockdown would become necessary, and also blamed those who want to take selfies with netas.

KPCC president D K Shivakumar said he had ignored well-wishers warning him about Covid-19. "But after I was infected and discharged from hospital, I was facing difficulty breathing. I am scared now," he said. MLA Lakshmi Hebbalkar said that netas were creating awareness but not taking care.

Many elected representatives have tested positive and a few of them are in hospital. Many have recovered. But there is no guarantee that it will not strike again

B NARAYAN RAO (1954-2020

A fighter who battled till the very last

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WHEN Congress MLA B Narayan Rao (65) became critically ill with multi-organ failure, it marked a 'last battle' for this born fighter who battled at every step of his life.

The MLA, who was undergoing treatment for coronavirus, passed away on Thursday. His close friend, MLA Bandeppa Kashempur, said, "I am going to Basavakalyan to participate in the last rites at 12 noon on Friday. He will be laid to rest with full state honours, as ordered by the CM."

A hearse van carrying the remains of Narayana Rao left Manipal Hospitals, followed by grieving relatives and friends, is expected to reach Bidar on Friday morning.

Narayana Rao, who belonged to the backward fishermen community, was an admirer of 12th century social reformer Basavanna. Though he was not a Lingayat and wanted to recreate the Anubhava Mantapa (spiritual Parliament started by Basavanna) in Basavakalyan, he battled hard and had many meetings with the decision makers, former CMs Siddaramaiah and HD Kumaraswamy, Congress working president Eshwar Khandre said. He got an in-principle 'yes' from the CM and even received a ₹100 crore contribution out of the total estimate of ₹500 crore.

He will be remembered as the man who had hosted then CM H D Kumaraswamy during his 'last village visit' to Ujilam, which sits on the state border with Maharashtra. After this visit, Kumaraswamy left for the US, and his 14-month-old government collapsed thereafter.

Rao, who was with the Janata Parivar in the 1970s, maintained very good relations with the Janata Dal (Secular) and he spoke passionately during the 'trust vote' in July 2019. He started out as an ordinary party worker and served as ZP member and served for two terms as chairman of boards and corporations. He lost two assembly elections previously but never gave up hope and won in 2018.

The funeral will be attended by Eshwar Khandre, Bandeppa Kashempur, MLA Rajshekar Patil Humnabad, MLC Vijay Singh and MLA UT Khader.

The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has arrested two Superintendents - Suresh Jadagi, Mohan Kumar - and Inspector Vaibhav Goel, working in the office of Commissioner, Central Goods & Service Tax, Central Excise, Belagavi in an alleged bribery case of Rs 5 lakh, said a CBI spokesperson.

For Farmers, Covid Clouds Have Silver Line

Agri sector shows signs of recovery with copious rain and restoration of supply chain post lockdown relaxations

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

COVIDONOMICS PART-5

CROP loss, price crash, droughts and floods have inflicted heavy losses on farmers over the past two years in Karnataka, while the Covid-19 pandemic this year further worsened their condition. But with copious rains and restoration of supply chain, after the country started unlocking from the crippling lockdown, the farm sector is showing signs of recovery, even as there are apprehensions over amendments to the Land Reforms Amendment and APMC Acts, perceived as anti-farmer.

Agriculturists also fear the withdrawal of free power supply to irrigation pumpsets and the minimum support price. The government's efforts to allay their fears have not yielded results and they have taken to protest, and are planning a Karnataka Bandh on Monday.

But sowing operations have continued unhindered. If this year's kharif season is any indicator, the sector is going to see an unprecedented boom in crop yields, as the area under cultivation has been the highest the state has ever seen. Good pre-monsoon showers and Unlock 1.0 turned out to be a boost for farmers, who completed sowing operations in 18.99 lakh hectares (26% of the total area), and Unlock 2.0 helped cover 47.01 lakh hectares, or 64% of the area, by July 24. As the monsoon advanced with vigour, sowing operations were completed in the entire 73 lakh hectares. What gave the boost was the return of people from urban areas to villages as the employable population either lost jobs or could not find enough work. Experts suggest that this factor alone could have contributed 5-7% to the increase in cultivation area.

Farmers have sown cereals in 31.34 lakh hectares, pulses in 18.81 lakh hectares, oil seeds in 11 lakh hectares, commercial crops like cotton in 6.25 lakh hectares and sugarcane in 4.77 lakh hectares. The cereals include maize (87%) and jowar (58%) which are widely grown in North Karnataka, parts of Malnad and southern districts. Tur (82%), urad dal (104%) and green gram (74%) are grown widely in Kalyana Karnataka, Belagavi and parts of the southern districts. Haveri has seen 99% sowing, Bidar 96%, Dharwad 92%, Dakshina Kannada 89% and both Kalaburagi and Belgavi 90%.

As the monsoon took off late, the Bengaluru region had recorded just 11% sowing by July 24. However, the district achieved the target after it received above-normal rainfall in August. The increase in sowing by 20% across the state as of July-end has upped hopes of the government on the revival of the economy, as the farming sector contributes a substantial 15 per cent to the state's GDP.

Eighty per cent of the cultivation is done in the dry regions that comprises 70% of the farming area. A whopping 90% of the state's rural population depends on this dry belt for livelihood. Kolar, Chikkaballapur and Tumakuru, where fields are normally dry, have turned lush green with above normal rainfall, said Thimmaiah, a farmer from Narasapura.

Harvesting of kharif crops begins in November, and farmers hope that they will get a better price for their produce with the transport sector fully resuming operations. Farmers who harvested green gram in August could not get good prices as traders from Tamil Nadu and Maharastra were missing.

When the lockdown was announced on March 24, farmers were hit badly as they could not move their yield to cities, their primary markets. The reduction in the number of interstate trucks also affected the supply chain.

Mysuru APMC president Basavaraju said that only 20% of the produce reached APMC during the lockdown. Fear among farmers, traders and also buyers over the spread of coronavirus made them stay back home.

Mahesha, a farmer from Kottimatti in Chamrajanagar, said, "I had to crush cabbage grown in two acres and could not harvest banana during the lockdown."

The worst-hit probably were pulse growers as they did not get a good price for green gram, black gram, soya and mustard, which are normally sent to other states. But some waited for the market to recover to see profits. "I decided not to sell onion at Rs 8 a kg. I harvested and then stored onion for two months and sold it at Rs 60 a kg," said Narase Gowda of Nagamangala.

During the lockdown, farmers had to spend 30-40% more on farm labour, said Kurbur Shanthakumar, president, Sugar Cane Growers' Association.

Grape and pomegranate growers, who were already hit by the worst-ever floods the previous year, had to sell their produce at half the price. Vijayapura district exports dry grapes worth Rs 500 crore and turnover from all agriculture produce from the district is Rs 2,500 crore per year.

Karnataka State Grape Growers' Association president Abhaykumar Nandrekar said that the prognosis is not good for grape growers even next year as a study conducted by the Horticulture University revealed that the yield will be less than 55% because of floods. Grape growers have also been hit by lack of demand from the United Kingdom, Europe and Gulf Countries, while only bulk orders are coming in from temple-towns of Tirupathi and Sringeri.

But Ambareesh of Kolar says many farmers have managed to recover over the last one month. Ramesh, a pomegranate farmer from Hosadurga, said that prices have stabilised around Rs 70-80 a kg and there have been some orders coming in from international markets. The State Government too has pitched in to help farmers by announcing a loan mela to disburse Rs 1,3000 crore to farmers and others. Cooperation Minister S T Somashekar said that the government will extend loans through cooperative banks, and new members too will be eligible for the scheme.

Protesting farmers to block highways today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha and Aikya Horata Samithi plan to block all highways across the state on Friday. This comes in the backdrop of the ongoing sit-in protest by farmers in Bengaluru since Monday against the passage of the 'contentious' farm Bills in Parliament and the state's Land Reforms Amendment Act which was tabled in the Assembly on Tuesday.

The protest will continue till Saturday when the monsoon session of the Karnataka Legislature ends. The organisers said there will be a 'Karnataka Bandh' on Monday as part of the national bandh call and all commercial and other establishments will remain closed. About 29 organisations including the Hasiru Sena, human rights organisations and Karnataka Truck Owners' Association have extended support.

In Bengaluru, more than 2,000 farmers will stage protest at Mysore Bank Circle. Traffic around K R Circle, K G Road, Corporation Circle, Nrupatunga Road is expected to be affected till afternoon and heavy police deployment has been made to manage the situation.

The organisers said that important highways leading to the city, including Ballari Road, Hosur Road, Kanakapura Road, Mysuru-Bengaluru highway, NICE Road and Tumakuru highway will be blocked till Friday evening.

NIA quizzes Sivasankar in Swapna's presence

Sivasankar was summoned for third time based on data from phones, laptops used by former UAE Consulate employee

Police personnel lathicharge protesters demanding the resignation of minister KT Jaleel in Thiruvananthapuram on Thursday | VINCENT PULICKAL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

AFTER grilling M Sivasankar, former principal secretary to the chief minister, for nearly 25 hours on two earlier occasions, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday quizzed him again for nine more hours -- four hours in the presence Swapna Suresh -- as part of its probe into the smuggling of gold through diplomatic channel.

Though the suspended IAS officer has been questioned seven times by three central agencies -- the Customs, NIA, and Enforcement Directorate (ED) -- in the last two months, sources said he may be summoned again.

While Sivasankar reached the NIA office in Kochi at 10.45am, Swapna, who was already in the agency's custody, was brought there around 11.15 am. By the time she arrived, the former bureaucrat's interrogation had commenced. "They were interrogated together for nearly four hours," said a source.

"Sivasankar was summoned for the interrogation based on data retrieved from the mobile phones and laptops used by Swapna," the source said.

With Swapna's four-day custody period ending, the NIA has to present her before court at 11am on Friday. "So it was one of the last opportunities for the NIA to verify facts from Sivasankar about his association with Swapna," the source said.

"It was revealed that several calls, messages and emails were sent between Swapna and Sivasankar for the last two years. These details were presented before Sivasankar and his version on this was recorded. Earlier, when Sivasankar was questioned, we did not receive the data retrieved from the mobile phone and laptop of the accused," the sources said.

With excess renewable energy, K'taka plans to sell power to other states

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA is on par with California when it comes to the generation and use of renewable energy, the energy department said. However, to ensure that the generated energy is stored and utilised, the state energy department held a virtual meeting with California Energy Commissioner on Wednesday. "The meeting was about the areas where we can collaborate to share our knowledge and resources," additional chief secretary of the energy department Mahendra Jain told TNIE.

According to records, of the total 30,063 MW capacity of power generated, 7,334 MW is solar, 4,823 MW from wind, 903 MW from mini- hydel projects, 1,731 MW from co-generation units and 3,798 from hydro projects.

"A total of 49.6% energy is from renewable resources, excluding hydro. In India, Karnataka generates the highest renewable energy and this is mostly because of the 2,000 MW solar plant in Pavagada village in Tumkuru. The target set by Union ministry is 7.25% solar energy, but Karnataka generates is 16.80%. The obligation is to generate 17.85% green energy, but Karnataka generates 39.97%," Jain said.

Department officials said around 36% of renewable energy is generated in California. Around 10 lakh solar panels are installed in California. Their goal is to reach 60 % by 2030.

The California commissioner was referred to the State by the Central government. The state is now working towards benefitting economically from the initiative. "The Centre is working on making renewable power agreements shorter and penalising states for generating less than the set target. Karnataka will benefit as other deficit states will purchase from us. We can also sell the renewable energy certificates in the market, depending upon the market rate and earn from it," an official said.

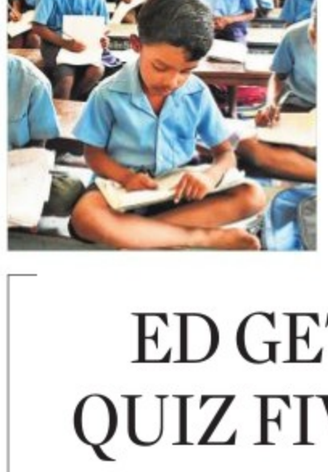
1,400 more schools come under English umbrella in Karnataka

PEARL MARIA D'SOUZA @Bengaluru

THE State will embark on a major project to more than double the number of government schools imparting education in English, which is being introduced in Class 1.

This year, as many as 1,400 schools have been identified by the primary and secondary education department to start teaching in English. Of these, 1,000 are Kannada schools and 400 are Urdu schools. This is in addition to the 1,000 schools that already exist, and have gained popularity among schoolers.

The textbooks are bilingual -- they will be printed in English and Urdu/Kannada, a department official said. The order to print the books has already been issued for this year, and admissions have begun in these schools, the official added.



The department's English medium school scheme was a hit the previous year, with more than 30,000 students having enrolled. Several were turned down because of the department's mandate to enrol not more than 30 students per class.

The number of students in the 1,400 schools is limited to 30 per classroom. With this, the department will see an additional of 42,000 students in government English medium schools this year. The schools are distributed across 224 constituencies, Principal Secretary, primary and secondary education, G Umashankar told The New Indian Express.

Each constituency will have English introduced in four Kannada medium schools run by the government.

This comes at a time when the government is seeing an influx of private school students into government schools, and some of them are those who had enrolled in private schools under the government's Right To Education scheme.

The 1,000 English medium schools started during HD Kumaraswamy's tenure as CM are stepping into their second year. Books for Class 2 students are already printed, department officials said.

Bench asks state to sort out funds issue with SEC

Observing that prima facie there is no impediment for the State Election Commission (SEC) to announce the schedule of the Gram Panchayat elections now, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the State government to sort out the matter of funds sought by the commission to hold the elections immediately, and release the funds. The bench passed the order after hearing a PIL filed by Congress MLC Kondaiah and others.

'Key conspirator' in KG Halli case arrested

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday arrested a bank recovery agent -- Syed Sadiq Ali (44) -- for his alleged involvement in the attack on the KG Halli police station on August 11, said a spokesperson of the investigating agency.

Ali is said to be the "key conspirator of the large-scale violence on August 11. He has been absconding since then," added the spokesperson.

The NIA also conducted searches at 30 locations in Bengaluru to "unearth the conspiracy behind the arson. The agency has seized airguns, pellets, sharp weapons, iron rods, digital devices, DVRs and many documents reportedly related to the Popular Front of India (PFI) and the Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI)," the spokesperson said.

On August 11 at around 8pm, an over 1,000-strong mob had vandalised DJ Halli and KG Halli police stations and burnt down the house of Congress MLA from Pulikeshinagar constituency Akhand Srinivasamurthy in Kavalbyrasandra.

The arsonists had damaged public and private properties, including vehicles while protesting against a social media post by Srinivasamurthy's nephew Naveen on his Facebook page.

Based on the FIRs, which were registered on August 12 at DJ Halli and KG Halli police stations, the NIA on September 21 had re-registered two cases.

Hospital: SPB in extremely critical condition

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

PLAYBACK singer S P Balasubrahmanyam is "extremely critical" and he remains on ECMO and other life support measures, according to a health bulletin issued by MGM Healthcare Hospital on Thursday.

Balasubrahmanyam was admitted to the hospital on August 5 with Covid symptoms. "His condition in the last 24 hours has deteriorated further warranting maximal life support and is extremely critical. The team of experts at MGM Healthcare is closely monitoring his health condition," the health bulletin issued by Dr Anuradha Baskaran, Assistant Director-Medical Services, MGM Healthcare hospital, said.

Balasubrahmanyam was put on life support on August 14 when his condition was reported to have worsened. However, his son, SP Charan, confirmed that the singer had begun showing improvements and eventually, even tested negative for coronavirus. Balasubrahmanyam reportedly underwent passive physiotherapy and later "actively participated in physiotherapy" and he was fully awake and responsive during that phase. In an update two days ago, Charan had said that his father was looking forward to returning home.

However, this development has come as a shock to the singer's fans, with social media abuzz with prayers for his swift recovery.

Meanwhile, DMDK founder Vijayakant tested positive for Covid and has been admitted to a private hospital in Chennai.

ED GETS COURT NOD TO QUIZ FIVE ACCUSED IN JAIL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Directorate of Enforcement (ED) has been permitted by the Special Court for NDPS Cases to question the five accused in the Sandalwood drug racket, under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PML Act).

Hearing the ED's petition, the court, on Thursday, granted permission to the Central agency to quiz the accused in the Bengaluru Central Prison for five days. The ED will record the written statements of Archana Galrani alias Sanjjanaa Galrani, Rahul Thonse, Virender Khanna, Ragini Dwivedi and Ravishankar.

The ED will record the written statements of Sanjjanaa Galrani (in picture) | EXPRESS

In its petition, the ED submitted to the court that the offence was examined and it came to the conclusion that there appeared to be a prima facie case of money laundering under Section 3 of the PML Act. Hence, the ED registered an Enforcement Case Information Report (ECIR) on September 9 and initiated a probe.

"For the purpose of investigation, it is necessary to record the statements of the respondents. Their written statements are very much essential for the money-laundering investigation which is admissible evidence before the court," the ED stated.

"Preliminary enquiry revealed that a huge amount of proceeds of crime are involved in money laundering activities. The accused were arrested by the CCB as they were found to be in possession of drugs/psychotropic substances which were beyond the permissible limits at their residences and also financing illicit traffic of drugs along with huge proceeds of crime," the ED submitted. To unearth the properties acquired by the accused by way of extortion, killing and dealing drugs, recording their written statements was essential to know the details of properties purchased and investments made out of the proceeds of crime. And to get details of the people who assisted them in money laundering, the ED said.

GP elections in Oct-Nov, says SEC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE State Election Commission is likely to hold Gram Panchayat elections in October or November this year.

In a letter to the DG&IGP, the Commission said it plans to hold elections to all 5,800 gram panchayats later this year.

For this, they need cooperation from the police department, as personnel need to be deputed to maintain law and order during elections. The officer also appealed to the police chief to write to the state government for additional grants for allowance, vehicles and other expenses.

Recently, the State Election Commission had issued SOPs for the conduct of panchayat elections, with details of campaigning and voting procedures.

The term of the panchayats ended in May and June this year, but elections could not be held due to pandemic.

Don't give any info under RTI, Sasikala tells officials

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

V K Sasikala, expelled leader of AIADMK, has written to the prison authorities requesting them not to provide any details related to her imprisonment or date of release. She has stated that no details should be provided under the RTI, as the applicants' motive will be to "complicate her lawful release at the right time".

In a letter addressed to the Chief Superintendent of the Bengaluru Central Prison in Parappana Agrahara, where she has been lodged since February 2017, Sasikala said, "I learned that several applications are being filed by third parties under the RTI Act, seeking information about the details of my imprisonment, date of release and other details. The said third parties file those applications for certain reasons -- gain publicity, political vendetta, etc. The oblique motive of some of the applicants is to complicate my lawful release at the right time."

Her advocate, who has prepared the letter, has also cited a case in which the Central Jail in Tihar had denied information under the RTI in 2017, based on the grounds that details of undertrial prisoners as well as convicts are personal and any revelation of the identity of the same is barred under a section of the RTI.

"The Central Information Commission concurred with the stand and upheld the decision by referring to the Supreme Court's view that the Right to Privacy is a Fundamental Right. Thus, furnishing any information regarding my imprisonment and other details may lead to intrusion into my privacy. Hence, I request your office not to entertain any RTI application and render justice," Sasikala requested.

However, the prison authorities said they will decide what information can be provided under the RTI on a case-to-case basis, after consultation with legal experts.

Court adjourns Sanjjanaa, Ragini bail plea hearing

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Special Court for NDPS cases has adjourned the hearing of the bail petitions filed by actresses Ragini Dwivedi and Sanjjanaa Galrani in the Sandalwood drug case, till Friday.

When the bail petition filed by Dwivedi came up for hearing on Thursday, the Special Public Prosecutor (SPP) representing the Central Crime Branch (CCB), argued against granting bail and the court adjourned the hearing for objections to the application.

In Galrani's case, the SPP filed objections to the petition and also submitted a CD to the court. It informed that the investigation had made progress.

Galrani's counsel Srinivas Rao argued that there was no material against his client except for a statement given by accused Ravishankar. Countering his argument, the prosecution argued that consumption of drugs itself was evidence against the accused.

Drug menace should be dealt with strictly: HC

The Karnataka High Court observed that the drugs menace should be dealt with an iron hand. Justice B A Patil made this observation while quashing proceedings initiated against Abdul Aleem, a resident of Lakkasandra, under the provisions of NDPS Act, by the NCB. NCB officials seized 15 kg of ganja from Aleem's car in 2013. While pointing out that the documents produced shows that the seized article was only dried brown leaves, the judge said, "If after analysing the article, it is not considered to be ganja, then the continuation of the proceedings is an abuse of law," he said. NEED TO EVOLVE CREATIVE SOLUTIONS TO EDU CHALLENGE

One of our biggest global challenges presently is the normalisation or renewal of education as we knew it. In India, the Union Health Ministry has issued guidelines for a phased reopening of school and college campuses. A hybrid model, entailing a mix of online and physical classes, will be the order of the day. In many states, schools opened on September 21 but physical classes have not resumed yet—it's only to enable appointments if students of Classes 9-12 want doubts clarified by teachers, in allotted timeslots and following safety measures.

Meanwhile, the UGC's revised academic calendar allows PG students, those from streams needing practical classes and freshers inside campus for classes from November 1. The stakeholders—students, teachers, parents—are highly sceptical though. Will social distancing, masks and face shields suffice inside enclosed spaces? And lab work involves multiple use of instruments. The challenge indeed is huge. For students and parents, the choice between academic career and health is a dire one. Many parents face a bigger dilemma: Can they continue bearing high education costs when income levels have dropped or dried up? Even middle-class families with two children are finding it difficult to carry on as before. In Karnataka alone, 1.5 lakh children have switched from private to government schools. The government, no less cash-strapped, is not sure how to cope with this reverse migration. For teachers, it's a choice between health and livelihood.

Neither schools nor universities are expected to go back to functioning the way they did in pre-Covid days any time soon. Online classes will continue, which deprives large sections of rural India from accessing education. Going by our surging Covid cases, precaution is paramount and well justified. How to fill the large gaps that this will inevitably leave, that is the real question. More than patchwork, ad-hoc solutions, that's where we need to get liberal and creative.

GIVE KOCHI ITS FLYOVER BACK

A 750-metre flyover at one of the many traffic junctions in busy Kochi is a big deal for political parties in Kerala. That's exactly why the structure in question, the Palarivattom flyover, has remained closed for the last 16 months and more. The fact is it was in use for only about 30 months—between its grand opening in October 2016 and the closure due to the appearance of cracks in May 2019. Now that the Supreme Court has given the state government what it wanted, the option of demolishing and rebuilding it, there's hope that the flyover will be rendered usable once again.

The story of Palarivattom flyover is the story of how public infrastructure projects are implemented in Kerala—with elements of corruption, delays, substandard work and, most significantly, unwanted politicisation. While the poor quality of work and materials is what caused the cracks on the flyover, the LDF government sensed a political opportunity in the unfortunate development because it was built during the previous UDF regime. An investigation was launched into the alleged irregularities, and several officials and a former UDF minister were named as accused. An IIT-Madras team that inspected the flyover found serious flaws but said the structure could be repaired. The government, however, decided to go with Metro Man E Sreedharan's plan of a more comprehensive overhaul—partial demolition and reconstruction. The Kerala High Court, on a petition challenging the government's decision, ordered a load test before deciding the flyover's fate. It's this order that the Supreme Court overturned.

Whether to reconstruct or only repair it was a question that delayed any kind of action to make the flyover traffic-worthy again. The long wrangling reeked of ugly politics. Both the ruling LDF and opposition UDF should be held equally responsible for creating a situation where a crucial flyover, built with taxpayers' money, had to be left unused for months together. The government has claimed its plan will ensure the flyover's safety for another 100 years. Now that it is free to execute its plan, it must walk the talk and give back the people of Kochi their flyover, stronger and safer. More importantly, it must do so within the promised deadline of eight months.

There cannot possibly be a judgment more important than this 1973 verdict for the preservation of our democratic traditions

THE SWAMIJI WHO PROTECTED OUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

A SURYA PRAKASH

Vice-Chairman, Executive Council, Nehru Memorial Museum & Library

TAPAS RANJAN

The news of the demise of Shri Kesavananda Bharati Sripadagalvaru, head of the Edaneer Mutt in Kasargod, Kerala, earlier this month brings back memories of one of the most memorable cases in India's legal history. This resulted in a landmark judgment of the Supreme Court that fortified the essential features of our Constitution and shielded them from potential parliamentary attack.

The court propounded the basic structure doctrine to erect these fortifications in this case, which was triggered by the Swamiji's petition in 1972 challenging a couple of land enactments in Kerala and three amendments to the Constitution, which, among others, deprived him of his fundamental right to practise his religion and manage his religious affairs (Articles 25 and 26).

The case—His Holiness Kesavananda Bharati Sripadagalvaru vs State of Kerala (1973)—and the consequences of the apex court's judgment for our constitutional well-being are so immense that it must be told and retold for the benefit of every generation, so that they may understand the importance of fundamental rights and independent institutions for them to breathe the free air of democracy.

This case had many firsts. It was heard by a 13-judge Bench, the largest constituted in the apex court's history; the court heard the arguments for 315 hours over 70 days; Nani Palkhivala, the legendary lawyer, argued the case for the Swamiji for 33 of those 70 days; and, finally, the court delivered its historic verdict and said that while Parliament had the power to amend any part of the Constitution, it cannot abrogate its "basic structure". This decision of the court has provided the citizenry with a vajra kavach (a protective armour), which will enable them to experience and cherish the core values in our Constitution, irrespective of electoral outcomes and political upheavals.

It is also a decision that has blessed the country's supreme text, which was sought to be mutilated by the Indira Gandhi government during the dreaded Emergency, with longevity and shielded it from forces inimical to the values embedded in it.

The basic structure doctrine and its inviolability was propounded by seven of the 13 judges on the Bench headed by the then Chief Justice S M Sikri. The court held that the following elements constitute the basic structure: supremacy of the Constitution; republican and democratic form of government; secular character of the Constitution; separation of powers between the legislature, executive and judiciary; and the federal character of the Constitution.

The Chief Justice and the other judges in majority dwelt at length on the meaning of the word "amendment" in Article 368. They held that Parliament had the power to amend the Constitution, "but not so as to result in damaging or destroying (its) structure and identity". A creature of the Constitution cannot devour the Constitution itself.

The Supreme Court reiterated the Doctrine of Basic Structure in several cases after Kesavananda Bharati and thereby etched these principles in stone, as it were, never to be tampered or trifled with. These cases include Indira Nehru Gandhi vs Shri Raj Narain (1975) and Minerva Mills Ltd Vs Union of India (1980).

With the passage of time, many other elements have been added to the definition of basic structure including the objectives prescribed in the Preamble, the balance between fundamental rights and directive principles, and judicial review, to name a few.

This is a tribute to Shri Kesavananda Bharati Sripadagalvaru for his decision to move the SC to protect his constitutional rights, and, willy-nilly, the basic rights of 1,350 million Indians. This is also a moment to salute his lawyer, Nani Palkhivala, who propounded the basic structure theory in his arguments and convinced the court to adopt it

The value of this judgment for the citizenry is immense because supremacy of the Constitution means no individual, institution or ism can get a perch above it and the egalitarian and democratic values enshrined in it gain permanency; republican form of government means the right of citizens to have an elected head of state like President Ram Nath Kovind and not a monarch or a scion of any particular family; secularism ensures that the state has no religion; separation of powers is a guarantee against aggregation of powers of all three estates into one entity; and finally, the preservation of the federal features protects the rights of states outlined in the Constitution.

Later during the Emergency in 1975, a sinister attempt was made by the Indira Gandhi government to overturn Kesavananda Bharati when it got Chief Justice A N Ray to constitute another 13-judge Bench to reconsider this judgement. Once again, Palkhivala rose to the occasion and argued so eloquently and vehemently against Justice Ray's move that the latter dismantled the Bench and abandoned the move within two days. M V Kamath, Nani Palkhivala's biographer, quotes one of the judges as saying "never before in the history of the court has there been a performance like this". Another judge said: "It was not Nani who spoke. It was divinity speaking through him." In his autobiography, Justice H R Khanna says "my feeling and that of some of my colleagues was that the height of eloquence to which Palkhivala rose on that day had seldom been equalled and never surpassed in the history of the Supreme Court". Kamath and Granville Austin, the most authentic chronicler of independent India's constitutional history, record many uncomfortable truths about the Kesavananda Bharati case and after, which tell us how perilously close we were to losing the most precious gift given to us by the founding fathers.

One wonders whether there can be a judgment more important than this for the preservation of our democratic traditions. This is therefore a moment to pay tribute to the Swamiji for his decision to move the apex court to protect his constitutional rights, and, willy-nilly, the basic rights of 1,350 million Indians. This is also a moment to salute his lawyer, Nani Palkhivala, who propounded the basic structure theory in his arguments and convinced the court to adopt it in Kesavananda and thereafter.

TELANGANA SONA AND THE WELL-BEING OF RICE EATERS

MADHU VISWANATHAN

D V R SESHADRI

The authors are faculty members at the Indian School of Business (ISB)

Over the last few decades, many lifestyle diseases such as cardiac problems, hypertension, cancer, diabetes and obesity have become increasingly prevalent. In fact, India has the dubious distinction of being a leader in many of these diseases. A lot of the increase in the incidence of these illnesses has been attributed to the rise in sedentary lifestyles, stress levels and pollution. Not surprisingly, this has led to a renewed focus on what we eat. On a regular basis, new trends based on "research" by medical professionals aim to shift our eating habits from current patterns towards other options such as millets and organic food. Similarly, rice, which is the staple cereal across large parts of India, is often targeted for its high carbohydrate and sugar content, and high glycaemic index.

While it is important to be conscious of what we eat, the changes in consumption recommended to achieve the desired health goals are dramatic and often ineffective. For example, a typical person in Telangana consumes about 12 kg of rice per month. It is infeasible for people who are accustomed to eating rice to wean off it. The way forward therefore is to provide an alternative to people that supports their current consumption choices while also addressing associated health and nutrition concerns.

This is where the new rice variety by Professor Jayashankar Telangana State Agricultural University (PJTSAU) , the Telangana Sona, offers a viable solution. Telangana Sona (RNR 15048) has many positive attributes such as flavour, higher composition of protein, carbohydrates, energy and vitamin B3, while also having the lowest glycaemic index among all known varieties of paddy. This is exactly what the doctor ordered (pun intended)! Rice lovers can now indulge in their favourite cereal, without having to worry about the deleterious consequences of what may happen to their health when they have regular traditional rice-based meals.

We are now stuck with a classic marketing challenge. A market ready for the product; and an innovator who through years of painstaking research has come up with a rice variety that improves on the existing choices while providing substantial health benefits. The missing parts of the puzzle are large-scale cultivation of the new variety of rice, the interest of distribution channels to promote this variety, and most importantly, getting consumers across the state, country and world to adopt this new variety. The PJTSAU, Government of Telangana and Indian School of Business (ISB) have now teamed up to develop an effective marketing strategy to take the Telangana Sona to markets across the world.

The new Telangana Sona has many positive attributes such as flavour and more protein, while also having the lowest glycaemic index among all known varieties of paddy. We are now stuck with a classic marketing challenge. The Telangana government has motivated millions of farmers to grow it. But how do we enhance demand for the new rice variety?

The Government of Telangana, headed by Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao, has motivated millions of farmers to grow Telangana Sona. The product offers tangible benefits to millers in the production process. Hence, the supply side has been largely addressed. However, unless this is augmented by brisk demand from the market, the distribution channels will quickly lose interest, and farmers will become cynical, treating all the hype around the new rice variety as just one more passing fad. The need of the hour is a translation of their investment into a lucrative revenue stream.

How do we enhance demand for Telangana Sona? How do we get consumers to switch to the tasty and nutritious option that is Telangana Sona? The product has a plethora of benefits; which benefit should we focus on and for whom? Should the communication be targeted to specific sub-segments? For instance, should the brand promise be great taste for the connoisseurs, weight loss for the weight watchers, low glycaemic index for the diabetes patients, etc.? Would this create confusion in the marketplace? Could there be a more unifying value proposition? These and myriad other classic marketing questions are being addressed by the faculty and students of ISB to make the market launch of Telangana Sona a grand success.

Indifference to Covid norms

'There's total wipeout of Muslims from govt in J&K'

After the abrogation of Articles 370 and 35A, there has been a 'total wipeout' of Muslims from bureaucracy in Kashmir and all important posts are held by Hindus, said National Conference chief and former chief minister of Jammu and Kashmir Farooq Abdullah in conversation with Prabhu Chawla, Editorial Director, The New Indian Express and author and senior journalist Kaveree Bamzai in TNIE Expressions, a series of live webcasts with people who matter.

What was your seven months in detention like? What was it like seeing your state relegated to the status of a Union Territory?
What gave me strength was the holy Quran. What hurt me the most is that Union Territories get converted into states while in this case, the crown of India was mutilated. This hurt us all — every one of us. We were and are a Muslim majority state. We joined knowing fully well that it is a Hindu majority India. The tallest leader of that time, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, was the one who introduced Article 370 when (Jawaharlal) Nehru was away in America and he assured the Muslim majority that their dignity will be held high. Where is that gone?

Do you feel this is something that is absolutely irrevocable? Or do you sense that they are willing to reconsider it?

They say three families looted J&K. How do we then have the hospitals, schools... in Kashmir? How is it that no farmers in J&K has committed suicide when everywhere else farmers are ending their lives?

They did not even allow me to speak in Parliament. You can imagine their intention. On the very first day, we asked for time to discuss what we have gained and what we have lost by doing this in Kashmir. Others like the Congress joined me in seeking this discussion, but there was no discussion.

BJP says the demographic nature of Kashmir has changed. Earlier, it had Kashmiri Pandits, too, and now it just has Kashmiri Muslims.
We have never said they (Kashmiri Pandits) are not part of Kashmir. There were other forces that made the Pandits leave, not Kashmiris.

Do you feel it is being done to change the demographic nature of Kashmir?
Every day we see it.

What is the evidence of it?
When we were in power — be my father, I, my son, Mufti Sahab or others — Hindus and Muslims were equally distributed in the bureaucracy. Today, you have the L-G who is Hindu, the DG and the two IGs are Hindus. We had representation from both communities...Today, that balance is not there. There is a total wipeout. Do you think only one community has the brains and the other community does not have any brains at all?
What about the internet connection? The rest of the country has 4G and will soon have 5G. Why deny that to our children and our businessmen? What about the tall promises that were made that everything will be hunky dory once Article 370 is gone? They say three families looted J&K. How do we then have the hospitals, institutions, schools in Kashmir? How is it that no farmer has committed suicide?

What is your advice to people in the Valley who look to you for hope?
How can I advise them? People call me New Delhi's puppet. They say, I sing bhajans and say 'Bharat mata ki jai'. They (the government) have left me no room...Some call me Pakistani and some call me kafir.

'Amendment Bill will adversely impact NGOs'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

GRASSROOTS organisations attached to Voluntary Action Network India (VANI), an apex body of NGOs, appealed to President Ram Nath Kovind not to sign the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Amendment Bill, 2020, and send it back for a parliamentary committee consultation.

The Bill was approved by Parliament this week. The activists said civil society organisations should have been consulted. Amid the pandemic, these NGOs have worked collaboratively to provide relief to the marginalised populations. The Bill would negate such efforts, they argued.

The NGOs also questioned the rationale behind carrying out the amendments in a 'rushed' manner. "This will impact the work of grassroots organisations working in the remote areas. The sector has worked diligently to serve all our citizens but it is coming under scrutiny. All those organisations that have been doing outstanding work and adhering to the rules are now being punished for no reason," said Harsh Jaitli, CEO, VANI.

Ingrid Srinath, Director, Centre for Social Impact and Philanthropy, Ashoka University, observed, "The amendment is not only atrociously ill-timed as civil society is having to cope with and respond to multiple crises, but is also against international law. It appears not to understand the scope and nature of NGO roles."

NGOs create development models and pave the way for changes, pointed out Ranchi-based A K Singh from LEADS.

SAARC must deal with terrorism: EAM

Jaishankar says collective prosperity of SAARC has been obstructed by terrorism and threat to national security

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

EXTERNAL Affairs Minister S Jaishankar on Thursday said that the SAARC must overcome challenges like cross-border terrorism and obstruction of trade to ensure peace in the region.

Speaking at an informal virtual meeting of foreign ministers of SAARC members, the EAM said, "Cross-border terrorism, blocking connectivity and obstructing trade are three key challenges that SAARC must overcome. Only then will we see enduring peace, prosperity and security in our South Asia region."

SAARC summits are held annually but post the Uri attack, there has been no summit since 2016. India had boycotted the summit in Islamabad in 2016 in protest against the Uri attack. Bangladesh and Bhutan had also followed suit.

It is crucial that we collectively resolve to defeat the scourge of terrorism, including the forces that nurture and encourage it. This will generate trust to build a stronger SAARC —S Jaishankar, EAM

Saying that the grouping has made progress over the past 35 years, Jaishankar said that collective prosperity of SAARC has been obstructed by terrorism and threat to national security.

"Such an environment impedes our shared objective of realising the full potential of our collective endeavour. It is, therefore, crucial that we collectively resolve to defeat the scourge of terrorism, including the forces that nurture, support and encourage it. This will generate the much needed trust and confidence to collectively build a stronger and prosperous SAARC," he said.

Meanwhile in a virtual address at the CICA foreign ministers' meeting, Paki stan foreign minister Shah Mahmood Qureshi Foreign Minister Shah Mehmood Qureshi said sustainable peace in the region would remain a dream until the core dispute of Jammu and Kashmir was resolved as per the Resolutions of UNSC and the aspirations of Kashmiri people. "Brutal and inhuman military siege and communications blockade since India's illegal and unilateral actions of last August, had destroyed life in J&K," he said.

Reacting to statement, EAM spokesperson Anurag Srivastava said, "It is very typical of Pakistan to use such fora to raise bilateral and contentious issues which is inconsistent with the principles and charter of such organisations and their meetings. What else can be expected of a country that indulges in cross-border terrorism as a part of its state policy," he said.

'MEA presence in talks called Chinese bluff'

"THE Joint Secretary (East) of Ministry of External Affairs has also been in the WMCC meetings with Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affiars," the officer said.

The Chinese, during the diplomatic talks, have been harping on the solution to be arrived at the military level talks while the military delegation has maintained that they lacked the mandate to take any decision. With the MEA representative part of the commanders' meeting, this changed.

The senior officer also made it clear that India wants status quo ante as far as LAC position is concerned. The officer said the PLA troops, being the aggressor, have to retreat to the earlier positions first — an issue on which China is playing hardball.

He also indicated that it's a well-orchestrated design on part of China to gradually escalate the matters. China had begun breach of protocols after the Doklam stand-off in June 2017, he said.

As per protocol, the patrolling party must not have more than 15-20 soldiers, but the Chinese patrols started having the strength of 50-100 soldiers.

They used to come in large numbers and push our soldiers back and later, they also started carrying batons, the officer said.

All this changed after the Galwan incident when the Indian soldiers retaliated to China's aggression and both sides suffered casualties. The officer said, "Our soldiers have now clear instructions that in extreme cases, they are free to open fire. The Chinese gameplan of coming in large number and pushing with our soldiers back will not work anymore."

'Ready to speak to any farmer on Bills even at midnight'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

ASSERTING that the Centre is ready to speak to any farmer on the farm Bills even at midnight, Union Minister for Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare Narendra Singh Tomar said that the Bills will only empower them to improve their income.

Arguing that the mechanism of Minimum Support Prices (MSPs) is an administrative arrangement, Tomar on T hursday said that the doors of the government are open for the farming community for talks to dispel the misgiving fanned by the Opposition.

Speaking to reporters at the BJP headquarters, Tomar said that the Opposition has been slamming the farm Bills for what they don't contain, since there is nothing in the legislative proposals which could have been criticised.

"I want to state it again that the MSP is there as an administrative mechanism, and it will continue to exist. The Opposition is criticising the farm Bills for the reason that there is no mention of the MSP. The Congress was in power for 50 years. Why did the main Opposition party not include the MSP in the law when the party was in power," asked Tomar said.

The minister said that the farm Bills will empower the farmers to improve their income, while also protecting them from income loss because of any reason.

"The contracts entered between the farmers and the traders will guarantee the farmers of the inco me even if there is crop loss due to hailstorm, flood or any other reasons, while also allowing them to gain from the price escalation," said Tomar.

The Minister said that contract farming exists in Maharashtra, Haryana, Punjab and other states, and he hasn't yet come across any incident of farmers losing their rights. "There cannot be any contract for the ownership of land and even the conciliation committee in the event of any dispute cannot pass orders which could affect the ownership of land of the farmers," said Tomar.

Modi is 'God of farmers', says Shivraj

Calling Prime Minister Narendra Modi 'God of farmers', Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has said three farm sector reform bills passed recently by Parliament will double the income of cultivators. Speaking to reporters, Chouhan termed those opposing the bills as 'kisandrohi' (anti-farmers) and claimed they are doing so to protect the interest of middlemen.

No alliance bigger for us than welfare of farmers: Sukhbir

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

THE SAD-BJP alliance could be reaching a flash point sooner than expected, if the speeches by top leaders of the parties are any indication.

SAD chief Sukhbir Singh Badal said at Talwandi Sabo on Thursday that no alliance or government was more important for the party than the welfare of the farmers. "We proved it by voting against the agriculture Bills in Parliament and resigning from the Union cabinet. It was only after Harsimrat Kaur Badal (his wife) resigned from the cabinet that the Opposition united against the Bills. It is for the first time in the country's history that a Union minister resigned in this manner," said Sukhbir.

Harsimrat Kaur Badal and said she had written an adverse note on the file when the draft ordinance was shared with her ministry. "I had requested that the matter should be referred to a select committee pending discussion with farmers. When I came to know the 'kala kanoon' (black law) was being tabled in Parliament, I decided to resign," she said.

On the other hand, ex-state cabinet minister and BJP's core panel member Madan Mohan Mittal dared SAD to break the alliance. "We are not breaking the alliance with the Akali Dal; if they want, they can. The SAD cannot form the next government in 2022 without the support of the BJP as we will not act as a junior alliance partner and will contest 59 seats out of the 117 instead of only 23 last time," he said.

A group within the BJP had been advocating severing ties with the SAD. Mittal said it is not easy for the Akalis to wash their hands of sacrilege incidents.

Hate speech: Cong leader's wife files intervention plea

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

SANGEETA Tyagi, wife of Congress spokesperson Rajiv Tyagi who died after a TV debate on August 12 on Thursday approached the Supreme Court by filing intervention application in the Sudarshan News case. She was accompanied by political scientist Kota Neelima

The plea sought court's attention to menace of hate speech in TV debates. It also seeks appropriate directions to stem, quell and restrict menace of hate speech by TV anchors till the time an appropriate legislation is framed in this regard.

The intervention petition said that electronic media bears unhappy and undesirable parallels with Nazi Germany, at least with regards to 'hate speeches. The applicants also talked about how Rajiv became an unfortunate victim of hate speech during TV debates. It claimed that he was verbally abused during a discussion on the Aaj Tak channel on August 12.

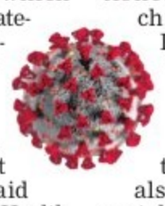
The Congress leader was also repeatedly referred to as Jaichand, a pejorative used to demonise somebody from the Hindu faith who does not subscribe to the Right-wing fundamentalist ideology, said the application. Consequently, the petition added, Rajiv suffered a fatal heart attack immediately after the show.

Bindas Bol, the petitioners alleged, is 'emblematic of a larger, insidious malady', which has infected the TV anchors of electronic media in the country.

UK plans human challenge studies for Covid vaccine; India says no to the idea

SUMI SUKANYA DUTTA @New Delhi

THE UK has become the first country in the world to announce that it will host human challenge studies, in which participants are deliberately injected with a pathogen to assess if a certain vaccine works, for Covid-19 vaccines. This is a proposition that India has considered but chosen not to follow, said senior officials in Union Health Ministry and the ICMR.



Under the project led by Imperial College, London, researchers are planning to conduct trials beginning January 2021. So far, about 2,000 potential volunteers have signed up.

Back home, authorities said there are ethical issues involved and such scientific exercises are far trickier than the routine human testings. "So far, there is no definitive curative therapy for severe Covid-19. What happens if somebody deliberately injected with the virus goes on to have severe form of the disease?" questioned Dr Samiran Panda, chief scientist with the ICMR. "That's why we are not considering such a testing in Indian context."

Experts pointed out that human challenge trials have been done in the past, but not lately due to ethical issues. "There were also instances of misuse on vulnerable populations such as people in mental asylums, orphanages and prisons in the mid-20th century," pointed out virologist Dr Shahid Jameel. Guidelines for informed consent were later framed.

Though only a small group of people are needed to prove efficacy, "usually human challenge is done for infections that have an existing treatment", Jameel said. For Covid-19, he said "we don't understand the long-term effects of infection; so such testing may be very challenging to carry out".

Another virologist Dr Gagandeep Kang reckoned, "For SARS-CoV2, Oxford University may be the best place to consider studies given their decades of experience of conducting scientifically valuable human infection studies safely."

Vaccine to be experimented on two sets of people

Under the study, one group of people will be given the experimental vaccine while the other will not receive it. Both the groups will then be injected with SARS-CoV-2 and will be compared to see progression and effect of the pathogen in the vaccinated group.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

A Delhi court Thursday sent former JNU student leader Umar Khalid, arrested under the stringent anti-terror law Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, in a case related to the communal violence in north east Delhi in February, to judicial custody till October 22.

Khalid claimed that he has not signed any document during his police custody.

Biren Singh drops 6 ministers, NPP livid in Manipur

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

MANIPUR seems to be headed to another political crisis after Chief Minister N Biren Singh reshuffled his over three-year-old Cabinet on Thursday by dropping V Hangkhalian, Nemcha Kipgen, Th Radheshyam Singh (all from BJP), L Jayentakumar Singh, N Kayisii (both from National People's Party) and Karam Shyam (Lok Janshakti Party).

Singh inducted BJP MLAs S Rajen, Vungzagin Valte, T Satyabrata Singh and former Congressmen Oinam Lukhoi and Okram Henry into the ministry.

While Kipgen was the only woman minister in the state's 12-member ministry, Henry is a former CM and Congress stalwart O Ibobi Singh's nephew. In 2017, Lukhoi and Henry were elected on Congress tickets but they defected to the BJP in August this year after helping Singh win a controversial trust vote. The duo will seek people's mandate in the by-elections to be held in 13 seats.

According to reports, the National People's Party was livid that two of its four ministers were dropped. Party chief and Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad Sangma will fly to Imphal on Saturday, an NPP insider told this newspaper. He said the party might pull out of the coalition government.

As reports were rife on the social media that two NPP MLAs could be dropped, the party had sent out a message that it would withdraw its support to the government if any of them was targeted. In June, the four NPP ministers had withdrawn their support to the government following differences with Singh. They returned only after the BJP central leadership assured them of addressing their grievances.

Singh, who is under pressure for the past few months to reshuffle the ministry, had met BJP national president JP Nadda and Union Home Minister Amit Shah in New Delhi recently. On Thursday, the Manipur chief minister told journalists that there was nothing significant in the reshuffle of ministry and that it was done as desired by his party's central leaders.

After a series of resignations, the strength of the 60-member Manipur House was reduced to 47. The government enjoys the support of 30 MLAs while the Congress has 17

Lawyer gunned down in downtown Srinagar

Babar Qadri had recently requested police to file a case against a FB user for spreading 'wrong campaign' against him

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

KASHMIRI lawyer Babar Qadri was shot dead by militants outside his residence in Hawal area of downtown Srinagar on Thursday evening.

Police said the militants fired from close range at Qadri, 36, near his residence at Mirza Kamil Sahib in Hawal at around 7 pm. He sustained multiple bullet injuries — one near his eye and another in the arm — and was referred to Sheri Kashmir Institute of Medical Sciences, where doctors declared him brought dead.

The killing of Babri, who was Lawyers Club Kashmir president, took place three days after he had posted a tweet urging police to register FIR against a person for spreading wrong campaign against him that he was working for agencies. "This untrue statement can lead to threat to my life," Qadri had tweeted.

Qadri is survived by two daughters and wife. His wife's father was also shot dead by militants some years back.

Qadri had been a practicing lawyer since a decade and earned prominence for taking cases of juveniles booked under the stringent Public Safety Act. He used to regularly participate on debates in news channels.

Qadri, who was practicing lawyer in J&K High Court, was expelled from J&K High Court Bar Association a few years ago for his alleged anti-Bar activities. Earlier this month, the Bar Association had decided against revoking his expulsion from the organisation.

Qadri's killing evoked strong condemnation from political parties. National Conference vice president Omar Abdullah tweeted, "The assassination of Babar Qadri this evening is tragic & I unequivocally condemn it. The sense of tragedy is all the more because he warned of the threat. Sadly his warning was his last tweet."

Apni Party vice-president Ghulam Hassan Mir also condemned the young lawyer's killing and termed the attack "inhuman and barbaric."

Border guarding forces may not be roped in for internal security

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE mandate of three central armed police forces—Border Security Force (BSF), Indo-Tibetan Border Police Force (ITBP) and Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB) is likely to undergo major changes as the government is planning to gradually withdraw border guarding forces from internal security duties in order to strengthen protection at various frontiers of the country, government officials said on Thursday.

According to the proposal, the MHA is working on a new 'model' where the responsibility of internal security duties, including conduct of elections, will be largely borne by the country's largest paramilitary force, the CRPF.

The new model and its workability will be tested in the upcoming elections in Bihar and bypolls in some states where the CRPF will be deployed in a 70:30 ratio along with state police forces, sources familiar with the matter said.

They added that the proposal was first discussed during a meeting of these forces chaired by Union Home Minister Amit Shah last year. "The CRPF will be the overall security incharge during conduct of polls. Border guarding forces like BSF, ITBP and SSB will be gradually withdrawn from these duties," a senior security official said. The official said the border forces have already been directed to strengthen security at their respective fronts.

While the BSF is tasked with guarding international borders with Pakistan and Bangladesh, the ITBP mans the LAC with China while the SSB guards open Indian fronts with Nepal and Bhutan.

The Assam Rifles, under the administrative control of the MHA but manned by army personnel and officers, guards the border with Myanmar.

No evidence to prove eight Tablighis spread infection, says HC

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

THE Nagpur bench of the Bombay High court struck down offences registered against eight foreign members of Tablighi Jamaat, saying that there is no material evidence to prove that they indulged in activities to spread COVID-19.

Quashing the charge sheet filed against eight Myanmar nationals, the bench of Justices VM Deshpande and Amit B Borkar observed that "allowing the prosecution to continue would be nothing but an abuse of the process of the Court, especially because of lack of evidence supporting the charges levelled against the foreigners."

"It is also not disputed that they were kept in isolation from March 23, 2020, till March 31, 2020, under the supervision of Dr Khawaj, NMC Zonal Officer, Mominpura, Nagpur. There is no material on record to prove that applicants had indulged in any act which was likely to spread infection of COVID-19," the court order reads.

The HC also stated the fact that these Tablighi Jamaatis do not even know Hindi and therefore, there could be no question of them of engaging any religious discourse or speech.

The Myanmarese nationals had landed in India on March 2, and stayed in Delhi till March 5. The group had provided their documents to police for registration in Nagpur.

It was submitted that during the quarantine period, the applicants had undergone a medical test for COVID-19 and they were found to be negative. Therefore, there was no question of spreading infection as contemplated in Sections 269 and 270 of the IPC.

The HC observed that no prosecution could have been launched against the applicants under Section 188 of the IPC based on a written report submitted by the police.

Allowing the prosecution to continue would be nothing but an abuse of the process of the Court, especially because of lack of evidence supporting the charges levelled against them

Didi showers Puja bonanza, BJP seethes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kolkata

CHIEF minister Mamata Banerjee on Thursday announced Durga Puja bonanza for 37,000-odd organisers along with guidelines for the biggest festival of West Bengal.

She allotted ₹50,000 to each of the puja organisers like the previous years. A one-time grant of ₹2,000 was also announced for 80,000 hawkers ahead of Durga Puja.

Issuing the Puja guidelines, Mamata alerted the people that a section is "waiting like vultures'' to reap political dividend if there is steep rise in Covid-19 infection after the festive season.

The BJP claimed that this was vote bank politics at the cost of tax payers' money. "People understand everything and the ruling party will not get any dividend of it in next year's election,'' said Bengal BJP's general secretary Sayantan Basu.

UP govt to name shame sexual offenders

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

IN order to put a leash on rising crime against women in Uttar Pradesh, the Yogi Adityanath government has decided to launch Operation Durachari to name and shame habitual offenders.

The chief minister has directed the police department to put up posters of the offenders in cases of crime against women on road crossings across the state. The state government had earlier used the same tactics against the anti-CAA protesters who allegedly vandalised public property in December last year. However, the posters were brought down after the high court's intervention. The CM told the police authorities that if any incident related to crime against women took place, the beat in-charge, chowki in-charge, station house officer and the circle officer would be held responsible and would be liable for action.

The CM also directed the authorities concerned to make the names of the protectors and patrons of such forces public. According to a government spokesman, Yogi has entrusted women police officers with launching Operation Durachari.

SC ASKS SUDHA BHARADWAJ TO SEEK BAIL ON MERITS

NEW DELHI: Activist Sudha Bharadwaj on Thursday withdrew her petition for interim bail, filed on medical grounds, from the Supreme Court after the court suggested she seek regular bail on merits.

A bench of Justices U U Lalit and Ajay Rastogi told Bharadwaj's counsel Vrinda Grover, "You have a good case on merits. Why have you not moved for regular bail?"

At this, Grover said that she will proceed accordingly.

Bharadwaj, 58, arrested in connection with the Bhima Koregaon violence, sought interim bail on medical grounds given the pandemic.

In her plea, Bharadwaj stated that her age is advancing and said she had been in jail for two years without a trial.

Grover informed the bench that a bail petition on merits was earlier dismissed by the Bombay High Court, against which they have not filed any appeal. She again asked the court to permit Bharadwaj to get a medical test done. ENS

AIIMS probes whether Covid spread from the dead

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhopal

AMID reports that COVID-19 victims' bodies are not getting dignified last rites, a team from AIIMS-Bhopal is conducting a research to find out whether the infection can actually spread from the bodies.

"We've taken up a bold study via autopsies of the dead Covid-19 patients. We came through various reports of undignified burial and cremation of such patients. I posted on Facebook the challenge to the pathology and forensic experts at AIIMS-Bhopal to study if the infection really spreads from the dead," said AIIMS-Bhopal Director Prof Sarman Singh. "The initial findings haven't revealed the presence of the virus on the body's surface or its mutation on the body's surface, which is in line with the scientific point of view."

The primary findings of histopathology and other analysis suggest that the vascular system is the worst hit by the virus, he said. "It consequently causes coagulation and leakage in blood vessels, which trigger thrombosis, causing death. It's also been seen that some patients who were already treated for Covid-19 died later due to lodging of thrombus." There isn't any evidence or record about bodies of novel Coronavirus patients spreading infection, he said.

Prof Singh, an experienced microbiologist, said there is also a scientific reason as per which, while a bacteria can grow on a dead body (through the body's flesh and blood), a virus is unlikely to grow from a dead body, when the process of cell multiplication in the body has ceased.

He said so far autopsies of 15 bodies were conducted within six to 12 hours of the death. "In this study, we're trying to find out those organs of the body in which the deadly virus has been present even after death," Singh said.

The study focuses on comparing the viral load present in the patients when alive and 6-12 hours after death.

Stuffed tiger guards dargah against monkeys

A 'tiger' has been put at the dargah of Baba Peer Fateh Ullah Sahab in Raisen district to scare away monkeys which also vandalize the property at the dargah, including CCTV and other critical systems. According to the Raisen Shahar Qazi Zaheer Uddin, monkeys have stopped coming to the dargah after the 'tiger' was put on duty. However, as many devotees are clicking selfies with the 'tiger', the dargah administration fears that the monkeys may soon get the trick.

Case against Digvijaya, Congress social media team

Police have registered cases against the social media managers of Congress and Rajya Sabha member Digvijaya Singh for tampering a video related to CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan. The former chief minister is one of the most vocal critics of the BJP government. Madhya Pradesh CM's official twitter handle @OfficeofSSC had tweeted a video of his programme that was held at Sitamau Mandi premises in Mandsaur district on September 20. The same video was allegedly tampered later and shared by the Twitter handles of MP Congress and Digvijaya Singh, after which a Sitamau based BJP leader and advocate Kamlesh Sharma submitted a complaint in the matter. A case was subsequently lodged in the matter under Sections 465 and 469 of the Indian Penal Code, the police said.

Face masks turn into books for primary schoolchildren

With the primary schools still closed across the state due to the Covid-19 pandemic, a primary school teacher Ajay Soni in Madhya Pradesh's Katni district has come up with a novel idea to educate kids. He has turned the plain white face masks into books for basic education. These masks feature basic alphabets, names of days of the week, names of months, names of festivals as well as synonyms and antonyms on the face masks. Children enrolled in the primary school of Latpahari village are now learning the basics of Hindi and English languages by reading the masks.

Minister says sorry for no mask comment

Madhya Pradesh Home Minister Narottam Mishra, 60, has never been seen wearing any face mask at public gatherings, despite dozens of his ministerial colleagues and MLAs having tested Covid positive. When asked by journalists on Wednesday about it, Mishra responded, "I don't wear a mask at any program, so what." After his statement stoked a controversy, he expressed regret. "My statement on not wearing a mask appears to be a violation of the law. It wasn't in line with the sentiments of the PM. I accept my mistake... I'll wear a mask and appeal everyone else to wear it and follow social distancing," Mishra later said.

TRUMP WON'T COMMIT TO PEACEFUL POWER TRANSFER

With just weeks left for November election, US president creates furore by saying 'there won't be a transfer' of power, raises concerns about mail-in ballot

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump has declined to commit to a peaceful transfer of power if he loses the November 3 presidential election, complaining about the use of mail-in ballots and terming them a "disaster".

Asked whether he will leave the White House peacefully, if he loses the election, Trump responded: "Well, we're going to have to see what happens."

"We are going to have to see what happens, you know that. I have been complaining very strongly about the ballots, and the ballots are a disaster...," Trump told reporters at a White House news conference on Wednesday.

"Mr President, real quickly, win, lose or draw in this election, will you commit here today for a peaceful transferral of power after the election? And there has been rioting in Louisville, there has been rioting in many cities across this country—red and so-called red and blue states—will you commit to making sure that there is a peaceful transferral of power after the election?" he was asked. Not satisfied with Trump's initial answer, the reporter pressed again. "Do you commit to making sure that there is a peaceful transferal of power?"

Trump exuded confidence that there will be continuation of power. "We want to get rid of the ballots and we will have a very peaceful—there will not be a transfer. Frankly, there will be a continuation. The ballots are out of control, you know it, and you know who knows it better than anybody else? The Democrats know it better than anybody else," the president said as he refused to take any other question from the same journalist.

In response to Trump's comments on committing to a peaceful transition of power, former Vice President and Democratic Presidential candidate Joe Biden said: "What country are we in? I'm being facetious. I said what country are we in? Look, he says the most irrational things. I don't know what to say."

Utah Senator Mitt Romney also commented on the president's words, writing on Twitter on Wednesday, he said: "Fundamental to democracy is the peaceful transition of power; without that, there is Belarus. Any suggestion that a president might not respect this Constitutional guarantee is both unthinkable and unacceptable." AFP

Cops shot at amid anti-racism protests

LOUISVILLE

TWO police officers have been shot at during anti-racism protests in Louisville, Kentucky after a grand jury decline to slap murder charges on three police officers over the March death of 26-year-old black woman Breonna Taylor.

The violence comes after prosecutors said two officers who fired their weapons at Taylor, a Black woman, were justified in using force to protect themselves after they faced gunfire from her boyfriend. The only charges were three counts of wanton endangerment against fired Officer Brett Hankison for shooting into a home next to Taylor's with people inside.

Louisville's police chief says a man has been charged in the shooting. Louisville Mayor Greg Fischer says one officer was treated and released with a leg wound. Another officer was shot in the abdomen and the mayor says he's doing well after surgery.

Police also said they arrested 127 people after what began as peaceful protests. Officers declared an unlawful assembly after they said fires were set in garbage cans and several vehicles were damaged.

Cities around the country saw protesters take to the streets following a Kentucky grand jury's decision to not indict officers in the fatal shooting of Breonna Taylor.

Police in Seattle made 13 arrests as authorities said people smashed windows and spray-painted buildings. Seattle police say multiple officers were injured on Wednesday night.

UK unveils wage scheme to save Covid-hit jobs

LONDON

UK Chancellor Rishi Sunak on Thursday unveiled a new Ccovid-19 emergency Jobs Support Scheme, which will see the government top-up wages of workers covering up to two-thirds of their hours for the next six months.

In a statement to the House of Commons on his 'Winter Economy Plan', the Indian-origin finance minister reiterated his past message that he may not be able to protect every job and business suffering through the coronavirus pandemic lockdown.

Nearly three million workers —or 12% of the UK's workforce —are currently on partial or full furlough leave.

The new Jobs Support Scheme will replace the existing furlough or Jobs Retention Scheme, which saw the government bear the burden of wages for workers sent on furlough, or forced leave, during the peak phases of the lockdown to curb the spread of the coronavirus pandemic.

"There has been no harder decision than to end the furlough scheme," said Sunak.

The minister stressed that the scheme provided short term protection during the "acute" phase of the crisis, but it is "wrong" to keep jobs going that can only survive in furlough.

Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer Rishi Sunak leaves No 11 Downing Street for the House of Commons on Wednesday | AP

Instead, people should be supported in "viable" jobs, which is where his new set of measures come in.

The new Jobs Support Scheme will support those who are in work "on shorter hours rather than making them redundant". Employees must work at least a third of their normal hours and be paid as normal and the government will then top up, covering two-thirds of pay lost by reducing hours. AFP

REFORM TARGET

Five states allowed to hike borrowings

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Centre on Thursday allowed five states to raise an additional ₹9,913 crore in open market borrowings (OMBs)—beyond the permitted three per cent of their respective gross state domestic product (GSDP).

According to the Finance Ministry, the states of Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Goa, Karnataka and Tripura may raise additional funds since they successfully met reform conditions in implementing the One-Nation-One-Ration Card System.

"The Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, has granted permission to raise additional financial resources of Rs. 9,913 crore to 5 (States through Open Market Borrowings (OMBs). This permission has been accorded after these States successfully met the reform condition of implementation of One Nation One Ration Card System," said the Finance Ministry.

According to current rules, states cannot borrow more than 3 per cent of their GSDP. However, the government has relaxed this norm due to the pandemic, and said that states may go for additional borrowings of up to two per cent of their GSDP for 2020-21. However, there was a rider that half of this could be raised only subject to the implementation of four specific state level reforms.

These reforms were the 'One nation, one ration card' system; ease of doing business; urban local body and utility reforms; and power sector reforms.

The Centre had already granted permission to states to raise the first 0.50 per cent in June, 2020.

This means, Karnataka can now borrow an additional ₹4,509 crore, while Andhra Pradesh can raise ₹2,525 crore more, followed by Telangana at ₹2,508 crore. Goa has been allowed to raise ₹223 crore extra from markets and Tripura ₹148 crore.

Bankruptcy code suspension extended

Suspension of proceedings under the IBC will last until December 25, officials say another extension possible

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FINANCIALLY stressed companies in danger of being pushed into bankruptcy got a breather on Thursday with the Centre suspended the operation of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) by another three months until December 25.

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs said in an official order that the initial suspension of six months which was to run out by Septmeber 25 would be extended up to December 25.

According to sources in the MCA, the Centre is may even grant another three month extension if the country's economic recovery is worse than expected.

"The economy is yet to recover from the shocks of Covid. There were requests from corporates, and after consultation with various stakeholders, the three months extension has been granted. The government is keeping close watch and if required, another three months extension will be given, " the official said.

DEBT SOARING

12.5% is the likely level of GNPAs this fiscal year

₹4.8L cr worth loans expected to turn bad due to Covid

In absolute numbers GNPAs will likely rise to ₹13.5 lakh crore from ₹8.8 lakh crore in FY20, translating to ₹4.8 lakh crore fresh slippages.

The suspension essentially means that lenders and corporate creditors cannot drag any company toward bankruptcy under the IBC until the end of the year (December 25).

The initial suspension of the IBC was announced by Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on May 17 in order to protect companies who were not able to honour commitments due to the pandemic from being pushed into insolvency.

L Viswanathan, Partner, Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas, notes: "The payment moratorium permitted by RBI for banks and financial institutions regulated by it was until August 31, 2020—this close alignment between the payment moratorium and the IBC preclusion period ensured that RBI regulated lenders were not left without remedy and that the credit discipline was not compromised".

However others feel it will aggravate the crisis. "It will lead to an unprecedented rise in fresh filings once it is revoked," warned Sumit Batra, Partner, India Law Alliance.

Harley-Davidson decides to bid adieu to Indian market, factories to be shut

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

AT a time when automakers have expressed dissatisfaction with India's "high" taxation rates, iconic American two-wheeler maker Harley-Davidson announced on Thursday that it has decided to exit India a decade after its entry. Harley also said that it would close its manufacturing facility in Bawal (Haryana) and significantly reduce the size of its sales office in Gurgaon.

"The company is communicating with its customers in India and will keep them updated on future support," the motorcycle maker said in a statement. The move is being seen as a fresh blow to the government's effort to attract global investment into India, particularly from companies that are looking to shift their facilities from China. The Indian government is planning to offer $23 billion in incentives to woo these firms, including production-linked tax breaks for automakers.

But, Harley is not the first American auto brand to the leave the Indian market—dominated by more economical and fuel efficient models than western in economies. In 2017, General Motors unplugged its India operations and sold its Gujarat plant, while Ford ceased independent operations last year, transferring most India assets to a JV with M&M. US President Donald Trump had in 2018 also expressed his displeasure on high Indian tariffs. Harley says it is shifting its focus back to more profitable and core markets such as the United States even as demand for luxury bikes fall globally.

ACTION PLAN

RBI lays 3-yr roadmap to boost UCBs' cyber defences

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Thursday has proposed a three-year action plan for Urban Co-operative Banks (UCBs) to enhance cyber security in the era of heightened digitisation, while ensuring that they measure up to their commercial counterparts.

In a document titled 'Vision for Cyber Security' for UCBs-2023', the central bank said it aims to achieve the objective through a five-pronged strategy which includes developing own technology vision document outlining their plans to incorporate IT solutions into their business in a secure manner, creating a reserve or fund earmarked for implementing cyber security projects and forming a Board-approved IT governance framework that would appoint a Chief Information Security Officer (CISO).

According to the RBI, matters related to cybersecurity need to be part of discussion in board meetings. Considering the implementation of cyber security framework to be a costly affair, the responsibility for implementation, monitoring, compliance and response would have to be assigned from the Board level and percolate down till the end user, it added.

The new measures will also include proper monitoring of the lifecycle of hardware and software assets to prevent the risk of operating obsolete hardware or software systems.

Jio's partner AeroMobile is a subsidiary of Panasonic Avionics Corporation.

According to the website, however, none of the plans will allow incoming calls. The company said first-time users of its in-flight mobile services will need to activate the plans on the Jio network, and added that international roaming services will not work on JioPhone and Jio's wifi device.

DEAN JONES (1961-2020)

QUICK RECALL

He revolutionalised batting in ODIs with his aggressive approach and quick running between the wickets.

For Indians, he will be remembered for the historic tied Test in Chepauk, where he made an unbeaten double ton braving extreme heat, severe dehydration.

Post-retirement, he worked as an analyst in India and Pakistan. One of the Indian channels named him 'Professor Deano'.

The man who saw tomorrow

Former Australian batsman and commentator Dean Jones dies of massive cardiac arrest in Mumbai

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN

SCOTT Styris was wiping away tears even as the cameras trained on him. Brett Lee gamefully carried on as he paid tribute to Dean Jones. Lee, only a few hours earlier, had administered CPR to Jones. Yet, here he was... talking about the life and times of one of the game's first great modern pioneers. On Wednesday, Jones was on air, dissecting the IPL match between Mumbai Indians and Kolkata Knight Riders. After lunch on Thursday, the 59-year-old had passed away, a massive heart attack claiming the life of a man who lived cricket.

In the dug out studio, the suit Jones wore on Wednesday was placed on the chair he sat on.

His customary red book was kept on the table as a mark of respect. On the field, Kings XI and RCB carried on. It is what he would have wanted, Lee said.

It can be argued that he breathed new life into it as the sport moved away from the traditional five-day format to the brave, new world of ODIs in the 1980s. And it came at a time when Australia was searching for new stars as they sought to win the World Cup for the first time. His on-field energy, the importance he paid to running between the wickets and ability to find the gaps was futuristic.

It can be said that the vision he brought to Australian cricket put them on the path of greatness that led them to dominating the white ball for more than a decade both sides of the millenium. He also made a casual observer of the game fall in love with the sport because of the way he commentated about the sport. To the Indian viewers in the 21st century, he was one of the first voices they heard and subsequently fell in love with.

Jones entered into Indian cricket's vast folklore thanks to his heroics in the tied Test at Chepauk. On two extremely hot and humid September days in Madras in 1986, he batted and batted and batted. He kept losing body fluids as Madras' brutal weather took a toll on his body. But the Victorian battled bouts of vomiting, dehydration and the principles of biology to play an innings that no Australian had ever played before on Asian soil.

Maninder Singh, who played for the hosts that day, told this daily: "I became a fan after watching him play that Test. It was just his spirit and the heart he showed. Those conditions... they were brutal, very hard. He stood for a lot of things. Above all, he always had a smile on his face. That smile..."

Ankita bows out of French Open qualifiers

NRAI proposes camp for shooters from Oct 5

CHENNAI: The National Rifle Association of India (NRAI) has proposed to have two camps — one for rifle/pistol shooters (Oct 5-Nov 8) and one for shotgun shooters (Oct 20-30) — next month. Shooters will be allowed into camp after producing a Covid-19 negative certificate.

The IPL's fitness tangle

VENKATA KRISHNA B @ Chennai

PLAYERS not converting ones into twos and twos into threes. Pacers taking more than the usual time to get back to their run up. Fielders moving slowly and misfielding balls they would usually field. Players like Virat Kohli dropping multiple catches in a single T20 match. Batsmen checking with umpires if they can have a water break every other over.

This has been a theme over the last six days in the hot and humid conditions of the United Arab Emirates where the IPL matches are finishing way beyond the stipulated time.

While a handful of cricketers had the luxury of having gym equipments at home, the story is different for the vast majority. Several Indian cricketers were told to look for alternate arrangements to keep the fitness drills going.

Though franchises had asked their strength and conditioning coaches to look after their players before they assembled, they were aware of the restrictions. The players' routines have been affected. It has led to reduced recovery periods and an increase in stress levels.

Even if a few players don't seem to be at their optimum level, Ramji Srinivasan, former India strength and conditioning coach, believes it is harsh to call them unfit. "Not doing exercises alone is not a contributor. It can be stress, it can be lack of workout options and some of them might be genetically loaded, where they can put on weight even if they eat little," he said. One of the other factors that is overlooked is the stress factor. Life under the bubble hasn't been easy for players. "They have adapted to (a) certain life and it is totally different. It's like solitary imprisonment. The way the game is played is different, how players are managed is different and the way players are approaching the game is different."

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

ALL the sub-plots and narratives ahead of Royal Challengers Bangalore clash against Kings XI Punjab in Dubai had taken a backseat by the shock demise of Australian Dean Jones. But with a lot of cricket left in the IPL, the phrase 'the show must go on', was applicable here too and 'Deano' would have wanted it that way.

With attention eventually turning to the field, it was a KL Rahul show. The Karnataka player scored an unbeaten 132 off 69 balls to power Punjab to 206/3. In reply, Bangalore were bowled out for 109 in 17 overs.

Young guns vs Dad's Army

Chennai Super Kings will play their third match at as many venues when they take on Delhi Capitals in Dubai on Friday. Here are a few talking points...

DHONI DILEMMA

MS Dhoni batted at No 7 in first two matches. While it didn't matter in Chennai's win over Mumbai, the loss against Rajasthan reignited the debate on his batting order. Dubai with bigger boundaries might prompt him to bat up the order.

INJURY WORRIES

Both the teams are likely to miss their star performers due to injuries. Delhi will take a call on R Ashwin after practice on Thursday. Ishant Sharma is also nursing an ankle injury. Ambati Rayuduis unlikely to play on Friday since he is recovering from hamstring niggle.

Thieves have stolen a vial containing several drops of blood of the late pope John Paul II from a church in the Italian city of Spoleto, the Vatican news site said Thursday.

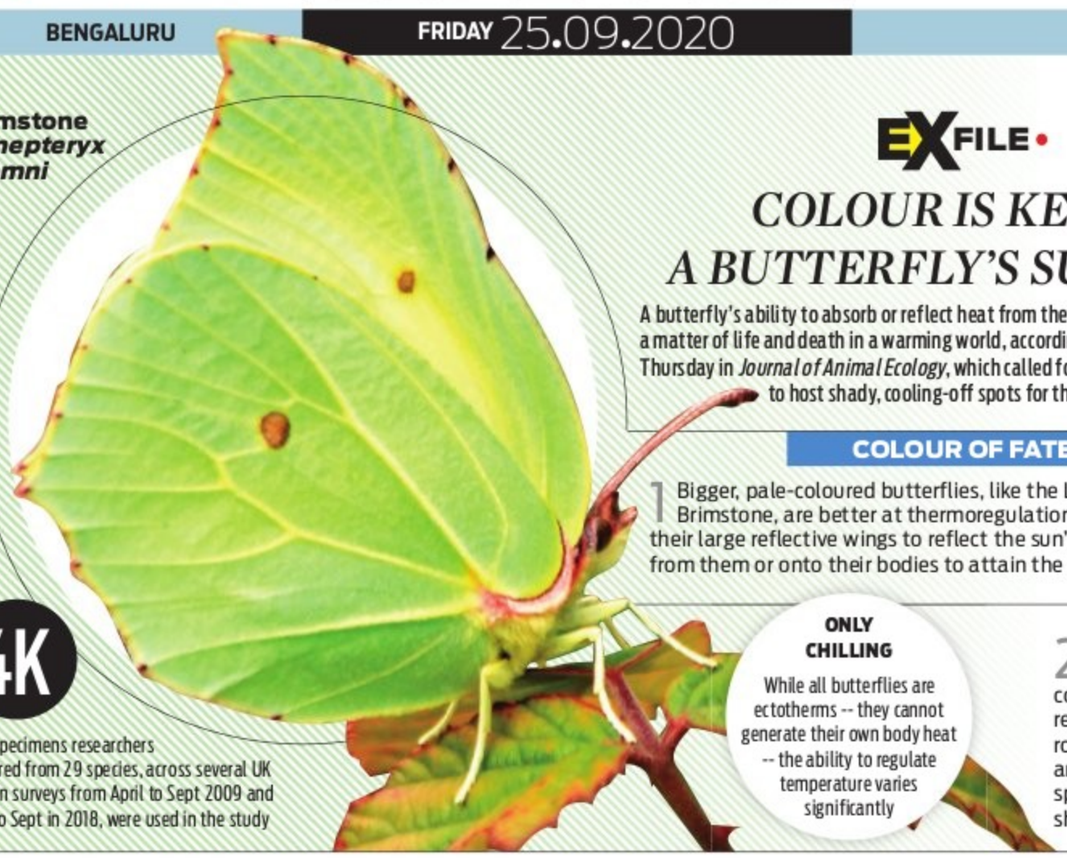
EXFILE

COLOUR IS KEY TO A BUTTERFLY'S SURVIVAL

A butterfly's ability to absorb or reflect heat from the sun with its wings could be a matter of life and death in a warming world, according to research published on Thursday in Journal of Animal Ecology, which called for gardens, parks and farms to host shady, cooling-off spots for the creatures



Brimstone
Gonepteryx rhamni

4K

wild specimens researchers captured from 29 species, across several UK sites in surveys from April to Sept 2009 and May to Sept in 2018, were used in the study

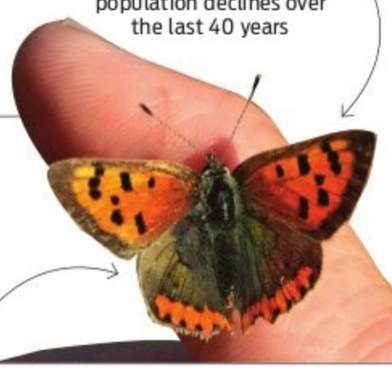
COLOUR OF FATE

1 Bigger, pale-coloured butterflies, like the Large White or Brimstone, are better at thermoregulation, as they can angle their large reflective wings to reflect the sun's heat either away from them or onto their bodies to attain the right temperature

ONLY CHILLING

While all butterflies are ectotherms -- they cannot generate their own body heat -- the ability to regulate temperature varies significantly

2 Among species with smaller or more colourful wings, researchers found a less rosy picture, particularly among the "thermal specialists" that use shade to cool down

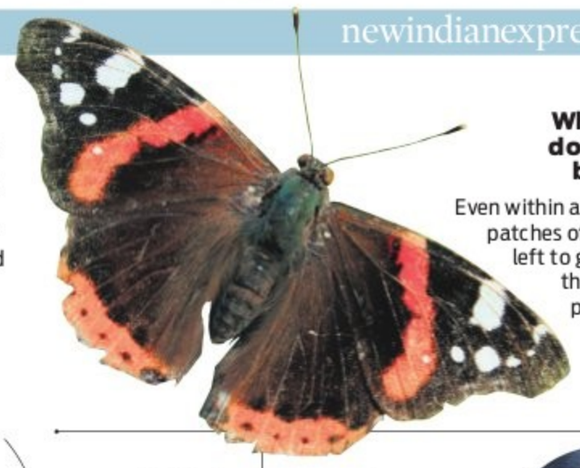


Why this is important

Insects including butterflies are the world's top pollinators -- 75 percent of top global food crops depend on animal pollination, according to the UN

40 YRS

Small Copper species have suffered steeper population declines over the last 40 years



Refuge under shade

The study found that species that struggle to moderate their body temperatures often rely on being able to escape the full heat of the sun in shaded "microclimates" to survive

What's to be done to save butterflies

Even within a garden lawn, patches of grass can be left to grow longer -- these areas will provide cooler, shady places for many species

Lost homes

- Researchers said the cooler niches they rely on have dwindled as habitat is lost and fragmented, driving severe population declines across the world. In Britain alone, two-thirds of butterfly species are in decline, researchers said
- This is exacerbated by extreme weather events and temperature fluctuations that are made worse by climate change

Cosmonauts not ready to try Russia's vaccine

CAUTIOUS

MOSCOW: Russian cosmonauts set to blast off for the International Space Station said on Thursday it was too early to get a Covid-19 vaccine touted by President Vladimir Putin.

"I'd personally say that I would not get vaccinated because I tread very carefully on this issue," said Sergei Ryzhikov, the 46-year-old leader of the next expedition to the ISS in October.

He and other cosmonauts wore face masks at the Star City training centre outside Moscow during an online news conference.

The cosmonaut's comments came after Putin touted Russia's vaccine developed in record time and named "Sputnik V" after the Soviet-era satellite that was the first launched into space in 1957.

"As soon as the vaccine is tried and tested and proves its reliability then a decision will be taken to recommend that cosmonauts get vaccinated," said fellow cosmonaut, 37-year-old Sergei Kud-Sverchkov.

He said the decision was down to the doctors in charge of cosmonauts' healthcare including immunisation.

Russia has raised concerns among Western scientists by announcing that its vaccine had received approval before full clinical trials have been completed.

While the vaccine showed promising results in early trials, Russia has not yet completed Phase 3 clinical trials.

Poor nations make urgent pleas for vaccine

Rich, powerful countries have secured millions of doses for themselves, sparking accusations of hoarding at UN

COVID CURE

JOHANNESBURG: If the United Nations was created from the ashes of World War II, what will be born from the global crisis of Covid-19?

Many world leaders at this week's virtual UN summit hope it will be a vaccine made available and affordable to all countries, rich and poor. But with the US, China and Russia opting out of a collaborative effort to develop and distribute a vaccine, and some rich nations striking deals with pharmaceutical companies to secure millions of potential doses, the UN pleas are plentiful but likely in vain.

"Are people to be left to die?" Honduran President Juan Orlando Hernández, a Covid-19 survivor, said of the uncertain way forward.

More than 150 countries have joined Covax, in which richer countries agree to buy into potential vaccines and help finance access for poorer ones. But the absence of Washington, Beijing and Moscow means the response to a health crisis unlike any other in the UN's 75 years is short of truly being global. Instead, the three powers have made vague pledges of sharing any vaccine they develop, likely after helping their own citizens first.

This week's UN gathering could serve as a wake-up call, said Gayle Smith, president of the ONE Campaign, a nonprofit fighting preventable disease that's developing scorecards to measure how the world's most powerful nations are contributing to vaccine equity.

A research technician works with blood samples at Imperial College London | AP

"It's not enough for only some G20 countries to realize that an equitable vaccine is the key to ending this virus and reopening the global economy," she said.

With weeks remaining before a deadline for countries to join Covax, which is co-led by the UN's WHO, many heads of state are using the UN meeting as a chance to wheedle, persuade and even shame.

Ghana's president, Nana Akufo-Addo, pointed out the illusory nature of borders and wealth: "The virus has taught us that we are all at risk, and there is no special protection for the rich or a particular class." The president of the Covid-free Pacific island nation of Palau, Tommy Remengesau Jr., warned against selfishness: "Vaccine hoarding will harm us all."

And Rwanda's president, Paul Kagame, appealed to the universal desire for a return to normal: "Ensuring equitable access to vaccines, therapeutics and diagnostics will speed up the end of the pandemic for everyone."

Just two days into nearly 200 speeches by world leaders, it was clear the urgent need for a vaccine would be mentioned by almost everyone.

2,500 at Swiss elite school quarantined

COVID-19

LAUSANNE: Swiss authorities ordered 2,500 students at an elite hospitality management school to quarantine themselves due to an outbreak allegedly linked to off-campus partying, the latest back-to-school sign of higher education's place in the pandemic. Authorities in Switzerland's Vaud canton, or region, said all undergraduates at the Ecole Hoteliere de Lausanne, or the Lausanne Hospitality Management University in English, were told to quarantine at home both on and off campus because the virus already had spread too widely for a more limited order.

"Significant outbreaks of infection have appeared at several levels of training, making impossible a more targeted closure than that involving 2,500 students," the Vaud regional office said in a statement. "Until Sept. 28, the students must stay home."

BUS-SIZE ROCK ZOOMS BY EARTH

ASTEROID

An asteroid the size of a school bus is headed our way, but NASA says the space rock will zoom safely past Earth on Thursday. The newly discovered asteroid will come within 22,000 km of Earth, well below many of the communications satellites orbiting the planet, scientists said this week. The closest approach will occur Thursday morning over the southeastern Pacific Ocean. Once it's gone, the asteroid won't be back to Earth's neighborhood until 2041. Scientists estimate the asteroid is between 15 feet and 30 feet. By asteroid standards, that's considered puny.

FACT OF THE MATTER

Raider baboon gets evicted

MONKEY MISCHIEF

Kataza already had a lengthy rap sheet with Cape Town authorities, so when he organized a band of others to raid a series of suburban homes, he was captured. Now he sleeps at a local prison, although there is a social media campaign for him to be returned to his old stomping grounds. Kataza is a baboon, one of a few hundred urban baboons who live around Cape Town and are often a nuisance when they invade properties looking for food. Kataza operated in the seaside village of Kommetjie, on Cape Town's southern peninsula. After he was captured, rangers relocated him to the nearby area of Tokai, hoping his behaviour would improve.

Tiny Rubik's Cube in Japan

3-D PUZZLE

A tiny but playable Rubik's Cube, so little it fits on your fingertip, has gone on sale in Japan for 198,000 yen, or about $1,900, for delivery starting in December. Billed as a "super-small" Rubik's Cube, it was created to mark the 40th anniversary of when the original 3-D puzzle went on sale in Japan. The cube measures just 9.9 millimeters, or 0.39 inch, by 9.9 millimeters, and weighs 2 grams. It's made of "ultra-precision metal," and comes with a box for its display, according to Mega-House Corp., a subsidiary of Tokyo-based toymaker Bandai Co. Rubik's Cube was invented by Hungarian architecture professor Erno Rubik in the 1970s.
